“Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus”

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Happy Mother's Day, and Happy Good Shepherd Sunday! The Gospel of the fourth Sunday of Easter is always about Christ the Good Shepherd. Let us remember to pray for our mothers, living and deceased, as well as for those through whom the Lord shepherds us, particularly our priests and bishops. May they grow in union with Christ and reflect the love of the Good Shepherd who laid down His life for His sheep. Since today is Mother's Day and the month of May is set aside to remember the Blessed Mother, I would like to spend time reflecting on Mary, who is our Queen and our Mother, who brings us closer to Christ our Shepherd.

We have respect and admiration for Mary's example and her crucial role in the plan of salvation. Even though she was afraid, her deep faith and purity motivated her to say yes to God's will. In her womb, God united humanity to Himself when He became one of us. Mary was closely united to Jesus, keeping all that He said and did in her heart (see Lk. 2:19). As Mary stood at the foot of the cross, Christ's heart was pierced by a lance and Mary's by a sword of sorrow, as Simeon had foretold in Luke 2:34-35. As Christ gave up His life for us on the cross, He also gave us His mother when He spoke to His beloved disciple and to all disciples, "Behold your mother" (Jn. 19:27). Mary, our Blessed Mother, participated in the key moments of Jesus' work of salvation: at the conception and birth of Christ, His Passion and death, and the birth of the Church on Pentecost. It doesn't end there, because Christ has brought her to heaven. She was assumed into Heaven, body and soul, and reigns in heaven as the Queen of heaven and earth (see Revelations 12). Christ fulfilled God's promise of fidelity to the throne of David, the king of Israel (see 2 Sam. 7:16). Like the kings in the line of David, such as King Solomon, whose mothers would be queen and sit at the king's right hand--"At your right hand stands the queen, clothed in gold of Ophir" (Psalm 45)-- so too does Christ respect and love His mother by giving her the same honor. Our Blessed Mother Mary sits in heaven with her son and savior, looking upon us with love and speaking to Jesus about us, praying for us.

Mary loves us and wants us to live happily with her son forever in heaven. She is a powerful intercessor and a loving mother; so let us ask her for her prayers. I would like to encourage you to pray the rosary at least once a week and to turn toward her with a daily "Hail Mary". Pray as a family. Place flowers by a picture of Mary in your house this month. Crown a statue of her in your home. May she continue to bring us closer to our Lord, who is the Good Shepherd that brings us hope and salvation.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

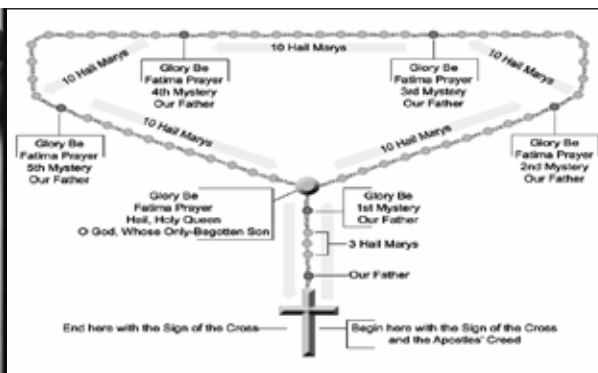

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

¡Feliz día de las madres y feliz domingo del buen pastor! El evangelio del cuarto domingo de pascua siempre habla sobre Cristo como el Buen Pastor. Recordemos rezar por todas la madres, vivas y difuntas, y por todos aquellos a través de quienes el Señor nos pastorea: nuestros sacerdotes y obispos. Que crezcan en unión con Cristo y reflejen el amor del Buen Pastor quien ofreció su vida por su rebaño. Porque hoy es el Día de las Madres y este mes es dedicado a la Santísima Madre, me gustaría reflexionar sobre María, que es nuestra Reina y Madre que nos acerca a Cristo, el Buen Pastor.

Tenemos respeto y admiración por el ejemplo de María y su parte crucial en el plan de salvación. Aunque tenía miedo, su profunda fe y pureza la motivaron a decir sí a la voluntad de Dios. En su vientre, Dios unió la humanidad a su divinidad cuando se convirtió en uno de nosotros. María estaba cerca de Jesús, guardando todo lo que él dijo e hizo en su corazón (ver Lc. 2:19). Cuando María estaba al pie de la cruz, el corazón de Cristo fue atravesado por una lanza y lo de María por una espada de dolor, como lo había predicho Simeón en Lucas 2: 34-35. Cuando Cristo entregó su vida por nosotros en la cruz, también nos dio a su madre cuando dijo a su amado discípulo y a todos los discípulos, "He aquí tu madre" (Jn. 19:27). María, nuestra Santísima Madre, participó en los momentos más importantes de la obra de la salvación de Jesús: en la concepción, nacimiento, pasión y muerte de Cristo y el nacimiento de la Iglesia en Pentecostés. No termina ahí, porque Cristo la ha levantado al cielo. Nuestra madre fue asumida en el cielo, cuerpo y alma, y reina en el cielo como la reina del cielo y la tierra (ver Revelaciones 12). Cristo cumplió la promesa de Dios al trono de David, el rey de Israel (ver 2 Sam. 7:16). Al igual que los reyes en la línea de David, como el Rey Salomón, cuyas madres serían reina y se sentarían a la diestra del rey, Cristo también respeta y ama a su madre al darle el mismo honor. Nuestra Santísima Madre María, sentada en el cielo con su hijo y salvador, nos mira con amor y le habla a Jesús sobre nosotros, rogando por nosotros.

María nos ama y quiere que vivamos felices con su hijo para siempre en el cielo. Es una poderosa intercesora y una madre cariñosa. Recen el rosario por lo menos una vez cada semana y vuélvanse hacia ella con un "Ave María" diariamente. Recen con la familia. Pongan flores junto a una imagen de María en tu casa este mes. Que ella siga acercándonos a nuestro Buen Pastor que nos da la esperanza y la salvación.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

Hearing the Voice of the Shepherd

Oh, to hear the voice of the One who keeps us safe. The One who protects us all. The One who leads us to the Father. We do know and believe that this shepherd still speaks today-often very softly.

- How will I listen for the voice of the Shepheard every day?
- How will I choose to follow the voice of this Shepherd and not other voices?
- How can I help others to listen to this voice? And follow?
