VOCATIONS OFFICE

This is Part 2 in a 3-part series of columns on the importance of your help in the formation of new priests

Priests do not come from a big warehouse

BY FR. STEVEN BORELLO
DIRECTOR OF VOCATIONS

When I was a little boy, I would often wonder where priests come from.

It's funny now, but I really thought there was a giant warehouse or training facility where they were waiting for a call from the coach to put them in the game. Almost like with baseball, when it was their time, they would get called up from the minor leagues and if they did well, they stayed and if they didn't, they'd be sent back.

Now I know that isn't the case, but to a second grader it made all the sense in the world. The truth is, priests come from families. They come from homes like yours and mine and they live ordinary lives like everyone around us. They go to school, play sports, have hobbies, some dated, some didn't, they participate in Church, and they have friends and siblings who help form their character and a real sense of who they are as a person and what they stand for. It is from within this community that they begin to know and have a relationship with God.

One of the greatest obstacles to young men knowing that the priesthood is something they might be called to is apparent lack of support from within the family for a priestly vocation.

We were often asked if we wanted to be a doctor, a lawyer, a teacher, an engineer or something else when we grow up, but rarely were we asked if we ever thought about the priesthood. Now, I know it is objectively different because it is a vocation and not a career, but what if we gave it the same attention? I truly believe more men would be open to exploring the thought that 'maybe I'm supposed to be a priest.'

So, what are three things a parent can do to create space for a priestly vocation in the family?

1. Make Sunday and any sacramental occasion (Confession) special.

2. Take time to talk about how God has impacted your own life and show your children how you pray.

3. Live well the life of virtue and continue working on your own marriage.

Whether it is simply the prayers before meals, Weekly Sunday Mass, or an occasionally rosary or sacrament of confession, these men encountered God and began to walk with Him. They may not have always prayed or been the best people, but God is faithful and walked with them through their ups and downs just like our families do with us.

From within the family, a vocation is cultivated, and it is only with the support of parents, grandparents, siblings and friends that a young man can be open to a priestly vocation .

At some point, these men began to recognize within themselves that they were made for more — for a deeper relationship that called them to make a gift of themselves, to pour themselves out for the sake of others.
