ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER SUNDAY 4th JULY

Every year Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First peoples.

This year is particularly important following the COVID 19 Pandemic and its impact on the ways in which we interacted and made contact with one another.

NTSICC has decided to adopt the NAIDOC theme for 2021 Heal Country.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YR B

To prepare for next Sunday's Mass go to St Louis Jesuits – The Centre for Liturgy website: <http://liturgy.slu.edu> and/or Jerusalem Bible Translation of Readings: <http://www.universalis.com/>

FIRST READING: A reading from the prophet Ezekiel 2:2-5

The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, 'Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, "The Lord says this." Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 122

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

To you have I lifted up my eyes, you who dwell in the heavens:
my eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords.
Like the eyes of a servant on the hand of his mistress, so our eyes are on the Lord our God till he show us his mercy.
Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy. We are filled with contempt.
Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich,
with the proud man's disdain.

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

SECOND READING: A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 12:7-10

In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Luke 4:18

Alleluia, alleluia! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me: he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 6:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark. Glory to you, O Lord.
Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him.

And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith. The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL CONNECTION

Wrong People and Wrong Places

Jesus has the opposite problem to the one Paul laments in Corinthians. Paul faces rejection because he's a flawed person. Jesus is rejected because he's not flawed enough. How can the local kid be such a font of wisdom and grace? Where are the warts? Must be a scam, they reasoned. He looks too good.

The hometown folks fall victim to an old sin, and one of the most unattractive: envy. The crowds in Nazareth were jealous that someone from their midst seemed to have a rare gift that put him behind them. It's a familiar near-sightedness: they were staring right at Clark Kent and had no idea he was Superman, even though the difference was only a cape and a pair of glasses. You can only see Superman in Clark if you can get past the mental obstacle that says Clark can't possibly BE that special. Then it's obvious that he is.

In the same way, we can only see Christ in others when we drop the blinders of our envy and start looking for him. Out of the mouths of babes comes wisdom, and from the most unlikely sources, fountains of grace.

When has "the wrong person" turned out to be Jesus in your life?

Jesus showed up in the wrong places for a saviour to be: in a manger, in Samaria, on the cross. Reflect on the "wrong" places in your community where Jesus is waiting to be revealed. (gpbs.com.au)

LAST CAB TO DARWIN

Sunday 1st August 2021; 2:30pm at the Forum 6 Cinemas Wagga Wagga

Bishop Mark Edwards presents a screening of 'Last Cab to Darwin' to raise awareness and promote discussion around the issue of voluntary assisted dying. Save the date and come and see this highly acclaimed film with a powerful and compelling storyline which touches sensitively on many of the issues at play. The movie is Rated M—there is some offensive language but it is not gratuitous. There will be an opportunity for a cuppa and conversation after the movie. Tickets go on sale in July through the Diocese. The cost will be $8.00 and we will contact those on the list in order of first received. (If you intend to attend, please sign your name on the list in the foyer)
