

LSD Promotions Markets & Events.

FUR FREE MARKETS POLICY.

LSD Promotions (Marketplace) Ltd recognises that the United Kingdom has banned the farming of animals for their fur on ethical grounds since 2000 and the use of one of the most common traps used to catch animals for their fur has also been banned for many years.

Recognising the use of real fur to be cruel and unnecessary, LSD Promotions prohibits the sale of products containing real animal fur on all markets and special events operated by the company either privately or under contract to Local Authorities in the United Kingdom, all events held and located on council owned land, council and privately leased markets (including seasonal and Christmas markets delivered by LSD Promotions). All products wholly or partially made with real fur are covered by this ban and include for example; fur coats, vintage fur, fur shawls, garments with fur trim, fur pompom hats, and fur accessories and trinkets. Such products are wholly unacceptable and are strictly forbidden to be sold at any market or event operated by LSD Promotions which is the leading fur free market organiser in the United Kingdom with a 5 Fur Free rating as awarded by www.respectforanimals.org/*

Failure to comply or any breach of this policy will result in a ban from trading on any event or market operated by LSD Promotions (Marketplace Ltd) and its associated companies now and in the future.

A further fur clarification document – what do we mean by fur? Is available to download from the website.

We ask that you help us in our efforts to eradicate the sale of real fur on markets and events in the United Kingdom.
