

Strong Indivisible Seniors (SIS)

Member Survey Results

15 Members Responded

Why Members Joined SIS

Members are looking for:

- A way to protect democracy and democratic values
- Like-minded people who share similar values
- Opportunities to take meaningful action
- Reliable information about current issues
- A sense of community and purpose

Common Theme:

"People want to make a difference—and they don't want to do it alone."

What Members Hope to Gain

Top Priorities	Responses
Meet like-minded people	14
Take meaningful action	13
Community involvement	13
Stay informed	13
Advocacy opportunities	12
Learn new skills	6

Takeaway

Members want both information and action, while building friendships with people who share their values.

Most Valuable SIS Activities

Highest Rated Activities

- Current event discussions (11)
- Rallies and protests (11)
- Guest speakers (10)
- Community service projects (10)
- Postcard/letter-writing campaigns (7)
- Educational programs (7)
- Voter outreach (6)

Takeaway

Members appreciate a balanced mix of:

- Learning
- Advocacy
- Community service
- Direct action

What Members Want More Of

Most Requested

- Action opportunities (13)
- Guest speakers (10)
- Group discussions (9)
- Community events (8)

Additional Suggestions

- Local government speakers
- Election organizing

- Canvassing and voter outreach training
 - Online discussions
 - Educational field trips
 - First Amendment and civil rights topics
-

Meeting Structure Feedback

Members generally like the current format.

Suggestions included:

- Move open discussion to the end of meetings.
- Set time limits for open comments.
- Continue bringing in guest speakers.
- Increase education on upcoming legislation.
- Focus discussions on actions members can take.

Overall Theme

Keep the current balance—but spend more time on solutions and action.

Issues Members Care About Most

The strongest priorities were:

- 2026 Midterm Elections
- Voting rights and voter protection
- Preserving democracy
- Civil rights
- Women's rights
- Local and state politics
- Immigration and detention policies
- Environmental issues

Takeaway

Members want practical information that helps them engage on the issues that matter most.

How Members Want to Help

Members volunteered to support:

- Advocacy activities
- Postcard and letter writing
- Event planning
- Welcoming new members
- Outreach
- Communications
- Fundraising
- Organizing speakers

Great News

Many members are ready to become more involved and contribute their skills.

Additional Comments

Members repeatedly shared appreciation for:

- SIS leadership
- Informative presentations
- Strong organization
- Welcoming atmosphere

Several comments highlighted:

"Keep up the great work."

"I'm excited to be part of SIS."

"This work is important."

Overall Survey Takeaways

Our members want SIS to:

- ✓ Continue educating members
- ✓ Provide meaningful ways to take action
- ✓ Bring in quality guest speakers
- ✓ Strengthen voter engagement efforts
- ✓ Build community among like-minded neighbors
- ✓ Continue being a welcoming, well-organized organization