

LMA Studios privacy policy

At LMA Studios, we respect your personal information and are committed to maintaining your trust. In particular, we would like to assure you that we never sell, rent or trade customer data with other companies for marketing purposes. You can find detailed information about how your personal data is collected, used and how we keep it safe in our Terms and conditions. Please Email Lucy at lmastudios97@gmail.com for this.

We have appointed a GDPR controller to make sure all the processes are followed adequately and in accordance with the law. Please email Lucy at lmastudios97@gmail.com if you have any questions about how your data is collected and stored.

We collect certain information about the visitors of this website. Read below to learn what data we collect and how we use it.

- A. Cookie data: A cookie is a small text file that is stored on a user's computer for record keeping purposes. We use cookies on this website to enable us to track and target the interests of our users. We may link the information that you submit while on the website. You can remove the cookies by following the directions provided by your internet browser's "help" file. You express consent to cookies by continuing to browse this website.
- B. Mailing list: When you send us a message through our website, we will ask you for some personal information, such as your name and email address. We will use this to deliver you content which we believe will best suit your interests. You are free to remove this data from our files at any point. You are also free to not submit this data to us. We will always ask for consent when you are giving us personal data and give you full control of how your data is used.
