UNITED WAY

Because of your generosity to United Way, local nonprofits have the resources to turn statistics into stories of hope.

UNITED IS THE WAY

Sweetwater Area
Ministries Food
pantry served 930 families.

1850 children were sent a
book once a month.

Meals on Wheels

28,254

served last year in Monroe County.

Served 499 children by providing breakfast, lunch and snacks for each student and their siblings when school was not in session.

GOOD SHEPHERD CENTER

MONROE COUNTY

Served 181 children that were abused and neglected. Additionally, they serve at risk and delinquent teens assigned by the judge. CASA provides one-on-one mentorship to help them navigate the court system. United Way provides funding to train these volunteers.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF THE OCOEE REGION

Served 1042 children
last year. Your contribution
provides scholarships for the parents that can't afford to pay.

Birth to Five served 89 children in Monroe County with developmental delays. A developmental therapist visits their home and works with the parents to give effective teaching strategies that prepare the child for school.
