

Gear Up Girl SA 2022 – Rider Update

There are just a few days to go before this Sunday's Gear Up Girl SA 2022 community bike ride.

Whilst we're all enjoying the current run of fabulous weather and temps are getting up into the 30's, we can expect cooler conditions on Sunday with 22 degrees forecast along with the chance of a shower or two. Hopefully they will have mostly cleared by the time we hit the pedals - fingers crossed. Otherwise, it will be a mild day and partly cloudy. It will be a good idea to pack a light rain jacket just in case. Of course, you're more than welcome to leave a small bag at the check-in tent with some extra clothes to change into after the ride.

WINNERS ARE GRINNERS!!

We've got some great prizes to giveaway thanks to our friends at Ground Effect cycling clothing, Café Bonython and Coriole Wines.

We'll be announcing the winners of $50 vouchers from Ground Effect cycle clothing, Gourmet Cheese packs from Cafe Bonython and Prosecco sparkling wine from Coriole Wines in the coming days. Plus we'll have a few more vouchers / platters to give away on the day so there's still a chance for you to win!

If you've already registered, you're in with a chance but make sure you encourage your friends and family to jump on board too. It'll be a great day out and any of you may just be a winner!!!

Here's a few extra reminders to help you prepare for the event.
