

Table of Contents

Part I: Foundations of International Relations

1. Introduction to International Relations
 - Definition and Scope of International Relations
 - Evolution of International Relations Thought
 - Major Theories and Paradigms in International Relations
2. Historical Perspectives
 - Ancient Civilizations and Their International Relations
 - Mesopotamia, Egypt, and the Indus Valley Civilization
 - Greek City-States and the Hellenistic Period
 - Roman Empire and Its Influence
 - Middle Ages and Feudalism
 - Feudal System and Power Dynamics
 - Crusades and Religious Conflicts
 - Renaissance and Early Modern Period
 - Emergence of Nation-States
 - Colonial Expansion and Imperialism
 - Industrial Revolution and Its Impact
 - Rise of Industrial Powers
 - Imperialism and Globalization

Part II: Actors and Structures in International Relations

3. States in International Relations
 - Characteristics of States
 - State Sovereignty and International Law
 - Types of States: Great Powers, Middle Powers, and Small States
 - State Behavior: Cooperation and Conflict
4. Non-State Actors
 - Role and Influence of Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs)
 - Multinational Corporations (MNCs) and Their Impact
 - International Organizations (IOs) and Their Functions
 - Transnational Social Movements and Civil Society
5. International System
 - Anarchy and the State of Nature
 - Balance of Power Theory
 - Power Transition Theory
 - Globalization and Interdependence

Part III: Key Concepts in International Relations

6. Power and Diplomacy
 - The Concept of Power in International Relations

International Relations

- Types of Power: Hard Power, Soft Power, and Smart Power
- Diplomacy and Its Functions
- Public Diplomacy and Cultural Diplomacy
- 7. Conflict and Cooperation
 - Causes of International Conflict
 - Types of Conflict: Inter-State, Intra-State, and Transnational
 - Conflict Resolution Mechanisms: Negotiation, Mediation, and Arbitration
 - Peacekeeping Operations and Peacebuilding Efforts

Part IV: Contemporary Issues in International Relations

- 8. Globalization and Its Discontents
 - Economic Globalization: Trade, Finance, and Development
 - Cultural Globalization: Media, Communication, and Identity
 - Political Globalization: Governance and Democracy
- 9. Security Challenges in the 21st Century
 - Traditional Security Threats: Military Conflicts and Arms Races
 - Non-Traditional Security Threats: Terrorism, Cybersecurity, and Pandemics
 - Human Security: Refugees, Migration, and Humanitarian Crises

Part V: Regional Dynamics

- 10. The European Union: Integration and Disintegration
 - Historical Background and Evolution
 - Institutions and Decision-Making Processes
 - Challenges and Prospects for the EU
- 11. The Middle East: Conflict and Instability
 - Historical Context: Colonialism and Nationalism
 - Arab-Israeli Conflict
 - Regional Dynamics: Iran, Saudi Arabia, and Turkey
- 12. Asia-Pacific: Power Shifts and Rivalries
 - Rise of China and Its Impact
 - US-China Relations: Cooperation and Competition
 - Regional Organizations: ASEAN, APEC, and SCO
- 13. Africa: Challenges of Development and Governance
 - Colonial Legacy and Post-Colonial Struggles
 - Conflict and Peacebuilding Efforts
 - Economic Development and Regional Integration
- 14. Latin America: Politics of Development and Dependency
 - Historical Context: Colonialism and Independence Movements
 - Economic Development Models: Import Substitution vs. Export-Led Growth
 - Political Instability and Democratic Transitions

Part VI: Emerging Trends and Future Directions

15. The Future of International Relations

- Rise of Multipolarity: China, India, and Brazil
- Technological Advances: AI, Robotics, and Biotechnology
- Environmental Challenges: Climate Change and Resource Scarcity
- Governance Innovations: Global Governance Reform and International Cooperation

16. Towards a Sustainable and Peaceful World Order

- The Importance of Multilateralism and Diplomacy
- Addressing Global Challenges Through Cooperation
- Building a More Just and Equitable International System