

2019 Chili Cook Rules

Saturday, October 12, 2019

1-4pm

Parfet Park – Golden, Colorado

Eligibility

- Any individual, business/organization or restaurant may participate as a Chili Cook, upon application approval.
- Chili Cooks must pay a $100 reservation fee that will be 100% refunded upon event day participation.

Set Up/Tear Down

1. Event Day Set-up will begin at 7am on Saturday, October 12, 2019. You may set up anytime between 7-9am.
2. When you arrive, go to the Chili Cook/Volunteer Check-in Tent near the main event EXIT on the east side of the park. Check-in and receive your assigned booth number. Due to park regulations, NO vehicles are allowed on the park grass.
3. For Load in – after you check-in, you will be allowed to drive into the parking lot on Jackson Street (adjacent to Parfet Park). YOU WILL QUICKLY UNLOAD, then remove your vehicle to other local parking spaces. NO PARKING ON JACKSON STREET!
4. Each chili cook booth will receive four (4) admission wristbands for their booth staff. Wristbands allow for event admission. Additional admission wristbands may be purchased for additional fee.
5. Come prepared with your own wagons, dollies, etc. to bring your items to your booth. In addition, event volunteers with golf carts will be available to help unload your vehicle and bring your items to your designated booth; and to help move your items after the event. The same will be available after the event is over. We appreciate your patience in waiting for assistance.
6. No tear down allowed until after the event is over due to limited event access and safety concerns.

Booth Information

1. Each Chili Cook booth will be pre-assigned a 10' x 10' space on grass.
2. Cooks are encouraged to create a visually-pleasing booth area. Cooks must provide their own 10' x 10' tents, tables and chairs. NO TABLES PROVIDED. All tents must be properly weighted/anchored with adequate weight at each corner in case of wind. No staking tents allowed in Parfet Park.
3. We encourage you to create a visually pleasing booth area, with a sturdy 10' x 10' tent/canopy (no plastic tarps), good signage and a trash receptacle.
4. The Golden Chamber will provide chili sampling cups for attendees, napkins and serving ladles. Also provided are large cups for the judge's samples.
5. No plastic spoons allowed for attendees! Attendees will simply "shoot" their chili samples.
6. NO ELECTRICITY/POWER IS AVAILABLE. No generators allowed.

Chili Cooking Rules

1. The Golden Beer Tasting & Chili Cook-Off is not sanctioned or sponsored by the Chili Appreciation Society International (CASI) or any other chili cook-off organization.
2. Chili cooking rules are subject to change, up until the Chili Cooks' meeting held prior to the event start at Noon on event day.
3. Chili Cooking Equipment: Cooks are expected to provide their own propane cook stoves, serving utensils, pots, fire extinguisher, etc. Cooks shall provide their own tent canopy (10' x 10' maximum), tables and chairs as necessary. The Golden Chamber will provide tasting sampling cups, napkins to the cooks. No electricity will be provided. No generator use allowed. Each cook is expected to utilize safe and clean stoves and other equipment. The cooking area must show itself to be a safe and clean working environment.
4. Chili Cooked On-Site: All non-restaurant chili must be cooked on site the day of the cook-off. All chili must be prepared in the open (no cooking in motor homes, enclosed tents, etc.)
5. Precooking Ingredients: Commercial chili powder is permissible, however, complete commercial chili mixes ("just add meat" mixes that contain pre-measured spices) are not permitted. Individual ingredients may be marinated, soaked, chopped, cut or pre-cooked prior to the cook-off. Only entrants in the Restaurant class may choose to cook their gallons off-site, due to the increased quantities requested of them.

6. Sanitation: Cooks are to prepare and cook chili in as sanitary a manner as possible. Please refer to Jefferson County Public Health Department guidelines for more information.
7. Inspection of Cooking Conditions: Cooking conditions are subject to inspection by the Chili Cook head judge or event director. Failure to comply is subject to disqualification.
8. Chili Entry: Each head cook is responsible for preparing one pot of chili that he/she intends to be judged and turning in one judging cup from that pot. No more than one judging sample may be taken from any one pot. Cooks in the Individual/Business class must prepare at least 10 gallons of chili per entry. Cooks in the Restaurant class must prepare at least 12 gallons of chili per entry. Please note: many cooks prepare more to avoid running out at the event.
9. Cooks Must Sign Number Slips: Chili cooks must sign their secret number slips in ink with their first and last names at the time cups are issued. Winners will not be eligible if their secret numbers are unsigned when presented. NOTE: Cooks must present their signed secret numbers to win.
10. Protect the Judging Cup: Once judging cups have been issued, each head cook is responsible for his/her judging cup. Cooks must not remove or tamper with the numbers on the outside of the cups. Any marked or altered cup must be replaced prior to turn-in or it will be disqualified.
11. Filing Cups: Judging cups will be filled $\frac{3}{4}$ full or to the level designated at the Cooks' Meeting.
12. Chili Turn-In: Chili to be judged will be turned in at the place and time designated at the Cooks' Meeting or as otherwise designated by the head judge.
13. Judging Rules: A complete set of judging rules will be available to Chili Cooks on the day of the event and will be reviewed at the Cooks' Meeting.
14. Penalties: Failure to comply with these Chili Cook-off Rules is subject to disqualification of that entry. The decision of the official(s) is final. In the case of disqualification, the official monitoring the event must immediately notify the head cook and give a reason for the disqualification. No refund of reservation fee for disqualification.
