My name is Jack Pettigrew and I am a photographer based in San Francisco. I am a senior at San Francisco University High School. Since I began photography, I sought to tell a story within each image. I strive to capture the moment, but also capture the story that accompanies it, the mood, the atmosphere, and the moments before and after that went uncaptured. I have selected images that I think best capture San Francisco, and the larger Bay Area.