A Note for Parents

Hello!

Thank you for exploring this story with your little one. This booklet is designed to be a fun, first step into the world of reading.

Reading the Story:

- Point to the words as you read them aloud. This helps your child connect spoken words with written text.
- The story uses simple, repetitive language. Encourage your child to join in with words they recognize, like "Bob" or "mat".
- Celebrate their effort! The goal is confidence, not perfection.

The Activity Page:

- Read the simple question for each row, like "Who is the story about?".
- Ask your child to point to or circle the picture that matches the story. It's a fun way to recall what you've just read together.

Happy reading!
