

CASE STUDY - ICRIR

Rapid Talent Deployment for Independent Commission for Reconciliation and Information Recovery

Challenges

ICRIR needed to recruit nine specialised investigators within a four-week timeframe to meet a strict regulatory deadline, with full compliance checks completed before deployment.

Action

Established a rapid response hiring team

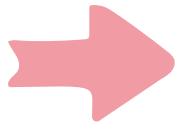

Identified the national pool of investigator talent

Conducted structured competency-based screenings

All candidates underwent enhanced PEP checks, identity verification, and right-to-work validation

Managed the entire onboarding process; security documentation, equipment preparation, first-day briefings

Conducted daily progress stand-ups with the client

Outcome

All 9 investigators were successfully delivered on schedule and within budget

Zero dropouts occurred

Fully cleared and onboarded

Achieved a 100% satisfaction score from the client

This demonstrates our capability to swiftly mobilise compliant, specialised talent for high-stakes government programs.
