| The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." Mark 5:33-34  | First Reading: But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world. (Wisdom 2:24) Psalm: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Psalm 30) Second Reading: Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. (2 Corinthians 8:13-14) Gospel: He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" (Mark 5:41)  |
