ULV Campus Memorials

ULV Archivist Keren Darancette and Emeritus Professor Al Clark will lead two tours of war memorials on the ULV campus. At the conclusion of the tour, attendees will meet in the Ludwick Center foyer and hear from Charles Cable, who served in the International Voluntary Service as a conscientious objector.

Tours are the weekend before Armistice Day (November 11th) now known as Veterans Day, when the first memorials were erected. As part of the tour, the docents will talk about this day and how it fits into the Brethren tradition.
