

The Case for Royal Formation:

Be the Change → Transition → Transformation into the Kingdom of God

Faith in God Ministry – 14 Day Study Guide

Foundation: Matthew 22:37–40

“‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment.

And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’

All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

■ Study Overview

- Days 1–3 → Be the Change (Identity Training)
- Days 4–9 → Transition (Character & Authority Formation – Beatitudes in practice)
- Days 10–12 → Transformation (Public Assignment)
- Days 13–14 → Case Studies & Conclusion

Day 1 – Be the Change: Identity in the Kingdom

Scripture Reading: 1 Pet 2:9; 2 Cor 5:20; Rom 8:17; Rev 1:6

Teaching Point:

You are not just a sinner saved by grace; you are a saint, son, heir, ambassador, and priest. Identity is the first step toward rulership.

Reflection Questions:

Which Kingdom identity do you struggle the most to believe about yourself?

How would your daily life look different if you fully embraced your royal identity?

Action / Journal Prompt:

Write a daily declaration of your identity (example: “I am a royal citizen of the Kingdom of Heaven”) and speak it aloud for the next 7 days.

Day 2 – Be the Change: Dependence on the King

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:3

Kingdom Lens:

Royal formation begins with humility. Dependence on the King is the foundation of rulership.

Reflection Questions:

Where do I still rely on myself instead of the King?

How does dependence on King Jesus position me for true authority?

Application Exercise:

Write a declaration of surrender: "I cannot rule apart from You, my King."

Ask the Governor (Holy Spirit) before each major decision this week.

Day 3 – Be the Change: Mourning with the King

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:4

Kingdom Lens:

Mourning is not despair; it is sorrow that fuels transformation. Kingdom rulers grieve over sin, injustice, and broken systems.

Reflection Questions:

What injustice in my family, community, or city grieves me most?

Do I allow the Spirit to turn that grief into intercession and action?

Application Exercise:

Identify one area of your community in need of restoration. Pray:

“King, use me to bring comfort and change here.”

Day 4 – Transition: Meekness in Authority

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:5

Kingdom Lens:

Meekness = controlled strength. A ruler under the King's bridle can be trusted with territory.

Reflection Questions:

Do I mistake meekness for weakness?

How has the King been training me to control my strength?

Application Exercise:

Practice restraint this week. When provoked, respond with gentleness. Journal the outcome.

Day 5 – Transition: Hunger for Righteousness

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:6

Kingdom Lens:

A true ruler longs for the King's law to shape society.

Reflection Questions:

What do I crave most—comfort, success, or righteousness?

How does my appetite shape my leadership capacity?

Application Exercise:

Fast one meal and meditate on Matthew 6:33. Ask the Spirit to increase your appetite for righteousness.

Day 6 – Transition: Practicing Mercy

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:7

Kingdom Lens:

Mercy fulfills justice with compassion.

Reflection Questions:

Do I lean more toward strict judgment or excessive tolerance?

How can I reflect the King's mercy in leadership?

Application Exercise:

Show mercy intentionally this week. Choose one person to forgive, release, or encourage.

Day 7 – Transition: Purity of Heart

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:8

Kingdom Lens:

Purity = single motive: to honor the King.

Reflection Questions:

Are there hidden motives in my leadership?

Do I seek the King's glory or my recognition?

Application Exercise:

Write down your top 3 life goals. Cross out anything that does not glorify the King.

Day 8 – Transition: Peacemaking as Diplomacy

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:9

Kingdom Lens:

Peacemakers are royal diplomats, mediating Heaven's reconciliation.

Reflection Questions:

Do I avoid conflict, or do I bring Kingdom peace into it?

Am I functioning as a son/ambassador in reconciliation?

Application Exercise:

Mediate one conflict this week using Kingdom principles: truth, mercy, and restoration.

Day 9 – Transition: Endurance in Persecution

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:10–12; 2 Tim 3:12; John 16:33

Kingdom Lens:

Persecution proves legitimacy. Resistance comes when Heaven's culture collides with man's systems.

Reflection Questions:

When have I faced resistance for living by the Kingdom?

Do I see persecution as failure or confirmation of assignment?

Application Exercise:

Write out the three Scriptures above. Declare them daily when opposition arises.

Day 10 – Transformation: Authority Training

Scripture Reading: Matthew 16:19; Matthew 18:18–20

Teaching Point:

Authority training is about judicial maturity—knowing when to bind/loose, legislate in prayer, and enforce Heaven's law on earth.

Reflection Questions:

How comfortable am I exercising Kingdom authority?

Do I walk in prayer as legislation or just petition?

Application Exercise:

Choose one situation in your life. Write a binding/loosing decree aligned with Heaven's Word and declare it daily.

Day 11 – Transformation: Public Assignment

Scripture Reading: Matthew 28:19–20; Matthew 5:14–16

Teaching Point:

Transformation is the stage where inward training produces outward rule—disciplining nations, shaping families, influencing culture.

Reflection Questions:

What sphere (family, workplace, community) has God assigned me to govern?

What stops me from stepping into this assignment boldly?

Application Exercise:

Write down one practical way you will extend Kingdom influence in your community this week.

Day 12 – Transformation: Cultural Impact

Scripture Reading: Psalm 2:8

Teaching Point:

The King trains His citizens for global impact—discipling nations through wisdom, justice, and reconciliation.

Reflection Questions:

Do I think locally only, or do I see my influence as global?

What Kingdom principle do I want to see established in my family line for generations?

Application Exercise:

Write a “legacy statement” for your family: what Kingdom culture you want them to carry forward.

Day 13 – Biblical Patterns of Royal Formation

Case Studies: Joseph, Moses, David, Disciples

Reflection Questions:

Which biblical figure's journey mirrors your current stage—Be the Change, Transition, or Transformation?

What lessons from their journey apply to your own?

Application Exercise:

Journal your personal "Royal Formation timeline." Mark moments of identity shift, character tests, and public assignments.

Day 14 – Why Royal Formation Matters

Teaching Point:

If we stop at salvation, we produce forgiven believers with no governing capacity. If we embrace Royal Formation, we produce citizens who legislate Heaven on earth.

Reflection Questions:

How has my view of discipleship shifted over the past 14 days?

Do I now ask, “How do I govern well enough to bring Heaven here?”

Closing Prayer Declaration:

“King Jesus, I accept my royal identity. Train my character, shape my authority, and release me into my public assignment. Let my life bring Heaven’s rule into the earth, until You return.”
