Guidelines for Preparing Executive Summary of Professional Contribution

Applicants must prepare and submit one Executive Summary describing their most significant professional contribution. This single project will be used for both your written submission and your oral presentation.

Your Executive Summary should clearly demonstrate your specialization and expertise. The outline below is provided as a guide. You may include additional elements that best showcase your professional contribution.

- Title of Your Project or Contribution
 - A clear, concise title reflecting your specialized area.
- Area of Specialization
 - State your field of practice or expertise (e.g., clinical pharmacy, pharmacovigilance, supply chain management).
 - Explain how it aligns with your professional focus.
- Introduction / Background
 - Briefly describe the context or problem you addressed.
 - Indicate the objectives and relevance to your practice and / or specialized field.
- Methods /Conceptual Framework/
Tools Used
 - Explain the approach, model, or tools you used to carry out the work.
- Description of the Work and Your Role
 - Clearly outline what you did, your responsibilities, and leadership role.
 - If the work was team-based, specify your personal contribution.
- Outcomes and Impact
 - Highlight measurable results, improvements, or innovations achieved.
 - Describe the effect on patients, systems, or the profession.
- Benefits and Potential for Scale-Up
 - Indicate how this contribution can be expanded, adapted, or used as a model for others.
 - Supporting Documentation or Data (if available)
 - Include figures, charts, references, or external recognition that support your contribution.
