

HR Healthy Hub Creating Your Will

One of the free services that Mutual of Omaha can provide to our employees is assisting in helping with future outcomes. Although this is something that we all do not think about daily, it is one of those important things in life to take care of. Mutual of Omaha is partnered with Epog for will assistance.

Creating a will is an important investment in your future. It specifies how you want your possessions to be distributed after you die. Whether you are single, married, have children or are a grandparent, your will should be tailored for your life situation.

Easy, Free and Secure:

Epog offers a secure account space that allows you to prepare wills and other legal documents. Create a will that is tailored to your unique needs from the comforts of your own home.

Epog provides the following FREE documents:

- Living Will and Trust
- Power of Attorney
- Healthcare Directive
- Pour-Over Will
- Last Will and Testament

Here is how it works:

- Log on to www.willprepservices.com and use the code MUTUALWILLS to register
- Answer the simple questions from any device and watch the customization of your document happen in real time
- Download, print, and share any document instantly
- Do not forget to update your documents with any major life changes, including marriage, divorce, and birth of a child
- Make the document legally binding — Check with your state for requirements. Within the state of Arizona, a will is made legally binding by ensuring it is written, signed, and witnessed according to specific requirements. The testator must be at least 18 years old and of sound mind. The will must be in writing and signed by the testator or someone under their direction and in their conscious presence. Two competent witnesses must also sign the will, and in most cases, these witnesses must be present when the testator signs.

As always, if you need more information, please feel free to contact Human Resources.
