

Homeowner is responsible for removing and resetting any fragile items from the interior/exterior walls and any furnishings that may be affected by vibrations or falling debris, during the installation process. It is further noted that Roof Rodeo, LLC shall not be held liable for; Acts of god, material shortages, special order delays, inclement weather, hidden site conditions; I.E. structural errors or damages, pipes, wires, ceiling fans, which are too close or on nailing surfaces. If any dumpsters or trailers are needed onsite to complete the job Roof Rodeo, LLC bares no responsibility for any damages that may occur to driveways, concrete, asphalt, aggregate, plantation, or any other structure that may be in the way, or aged to the point that cracks or damage has occurred, and or any surface that requires (us) Roof Rodeo, LLC to drive, walk, or climb on. ((NOTED))(-Roof Rodeo, LLC will clean up after work is completed however it should be understood that there will always be some debris, or nails that will be missed and remain onsite as much as we strive to do our best to maintain a clean work environment it is impossible to keep track of every single nail or other items used by us to complete a roof project.) If required Roof Rodeo, LLC will pull permits and post on the jobsite. Roof Rodeo, LLC would appreciate you to taking some time to visit our website at roofrodeo.com to obtain the most up to date information and photos of our completed and current projects, the products we proudly carry and stand by, as well as our contact and scheduling information. We greatly appreciate your reviews and feedback on Google reviews. Roof Rodeo, LLC would love your feedback! Please take the time to leave us a review. Thank you for contacting us, we greatly appreciate your business and referrals!

(INSURANCE CLAIMS) This agreement is contingent upon approval of the claim by the insurance company. With your approval, Roof Rodeo, LLC will perform, the repairs or replacements specified by your insurance company for insurance funds only without any additional cost to you, except for your deductible. Any upgrade or additional work authorized by the Homeowner is at the homeowners expense. If upon execution of this contract the Homeowner does not allow our company to perform the contracted work, Homeowner agrees to pay Roof Rodeo, LLC 15% of the contract price or insurance payment, not as a penalty, but as fair compensation for services provided by the salesperson up to the time of cancellation. Owners have the right to cancel this contract within 3 days after the date of execution, and prior to any work being performed (this includes meeting or communicating with any parties with the insurance carriers.) I hereby authorize Roof Rodeo, LLC permission to discuss this claim with my insurance carrier on my behalf. I also authorize any depreciation or supplement monies for this claim to be paid directly to Roof Rodeo on my behalf.