Immerse yourself in history and be fascinated by the landscape during a river cruise in a traditional “bumboat”. The exquisite and classic Bumboat contrasts with the modern architecture of Singapore's landmarks. The further developed bumboats are environmentally friendly and quiet, but retain the unmistakable character of the historical models. This cruise is undoubtedly a must-see in Singapore and it is full of exciting sights during the day or in the evening. Get on board at Clarke Quay and enjoy a 40-minute panoramic view of some of Singapore's popular riverside attractions. The bumboats stop at the jetties and you can continue your journey on foot or stay on board all the time to see Singapore from a different perspective! If you want to see how Singapore has changed over the years, this relaxed and enjoyable river cruise will not disappoint you.
