Reclaim the Majesty

~A Soul Reclamation Retreat~

This power activating one-on-one customized retreat is for a woman who is actively awakening from her smallness to her GREATNESS! She knows there is more within her to access and activate, but she also knows she needs the opportunity to re-wild and re-connect to that magic within her. She considers Nature to be her church, where she can release the baggage and battles long enough to feel joy and aliveness rushing thru her veins once again. But she's not a newbie to this awakening path, she's been doing the work, and getting the results, but this, this is a ceiling that both daunts her and excites her. What if? What if I broke thru this barrier within me?

Well guess what?!? I, Shae Bryant, am here to game-change the game-changers of this world!

I've got you babe! That Power & Potential within you - that calls upon you to RISE and be more in this world - more of the most authentic, magical you . . . I can see that in you!

I can see it even more than you can! And I promise I can re-connect you to YOU!

How do I do it?

Well, I don't really do it, I simply facilitate YOU doing it. My job is to connect deeply to Source and to be a channel of divine energy flowing for your highest good. I hold safe, sacred space over the course of 4-7 days and nights with only your healing as the intention. You spend that entire time basked in unconditional, non-judgmental space where you'll eventually be convinced to drop the act, the pretense, and the barriers to your own connection. Between my love and the incredible Beauty of the Hawaiian wilderness you'll literally be seduced back into Higher Self Love embodied. I promise. Return home reborn, re-inspired, and reconnected to your innate Inner Power - ready to move forward on your Mission, ready to bring forth your unique Medicine to the world.

How this works:

If everything you'd read so far sparks an excitement within you AND you currently possess a travel budget then let's connect! We begin with a fun and free INTEREST CALL, where I listen to your vision and your requirements, and then we discuss any questions or concerns you have about my services. I will also provide you with all the retreat investment details.

If you feel the HELL YES to move forward then I formally send you the Invitation to Apply and the Adventure Assessment that we'll use to create your journey. We'll then we set up our next free call, the INTERVIEW CALL. In this free coaching call we hone the vision of your adventure and quite literally interview each other for the job. From there we'll absolutely know if this project is a win win for us both and after you make your first payment we are a go! I immediately get started here in Hawaii creating your personal adventure vision and we set up the first of our pre-adventure transformative coaching calls.
