One Blue Star represents one family member serving in the Armed Forces. The Banners can have up to four (4) stars, signifying that four members of that family are serving simultaneously in military uniform on Active Duty. Sadly, war causes death!...When the Blue Star is replaced by a Gold Star, that signifies the "hostile-fire" death of a family member of that household. Blue Star Service Banners, while widely used across America during WW-I and II, but were not so enthusiastically embraced during the Korean and Vietnam Wars. The American Legion and The National Society, Sons of the American Revolution rekindled the tradition and spirit of pride in our military men and women following the horrific terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. The American Legion seeks to provide families of all military service members a Blue Star Service Banner to prominently display in their Honor for all to see.
