

Aesthetics · Advanced Skin · Academic Pathways

www.theclinicandacademy.com

Privacy Policy and GDPR

Photographs must be taken for insurance purposes but will only be published with your permission. They may be presented upon request to the insurance company. Your data will only be shared with Rejuv Cosmetology. Your data will never be shared with any other third parties.

Storage of information remains in a lockable unit, or protected via passwords ONLY retained by staff.

Dubaii UK

Terms and Conditions

As a representative of DUBAII UK, Rejuv Cosmetology owns full rights to the marketing, and over see of approved DUBAII technicians, advertising, set promotions and ability to retail exclusive DUBAII UK products.

Rejuv Cosmetology does list, but cannot be held responsible for the actions of suggested qualified DUBAII specialists. Each independent DUBAII practitioner holds full responsibility of how they behave at their location, taking care of their own insurance and clinical representation. Should a treatment not be up to scratch, we do ask to be notified by email, but hold no personal responsibility to the treatment appointment or out come performed by another practitioner on their premises.

We will however, appoint the practitioner with a quality assessment moving forward, to ensure their practice reflects the expected work of the DUBAII company.

Each registered training provider and practitioner is insured solely by themselves and Rejuv Cosmetology, nor DUBAII UK, can be held accountable for their decision to what insurance provider they use, should you have a concern, you must go directly to your chosen practitioner to find a solution.

Products used on site by each registered practitioner, MUST have be purchased from the direct wholesale source, found at rejuvcosinternational.com. Should a practitioner be found using an out sourced material, they will be void from offering DUBAII treatments and training with immediate effect.

For insurance purposes, consultation forms WILL be signed by each client, on each appointment session. These consultation forms are provided for by DUBAII UK and are the only valid consultation contracts.

As a client, you are entering a legal binding contract upon signing this form. Should you not wish to sign, the treatment will not go ahead and deposit will be lost. Your signature represents an official, legal agreement to all that is listed within the DUBAII contract, including the awareness of potential risks, that no DUBAII practitioner can be held personally responsible for.

All deposits and moneys taken by each registered DUBAII practitioner, are their personal fund or business fund, and again, is between yourself and the practitioner themselves. Both Rejuv Cosmetology and DUBAII UK cannot be held responsible for any moneys exchanged.

FEES for DUBAII face Lift, products and home care treatments are set at what the company have adequately prepared given expenses, time of treatment, tools used during treatment, skill and knowledge provided to each client. Therefore, any practitioner seen offering the DUBAII FACE LIFT at less then £210, will be immediately revoked from offering the treatment.

Training courses are ONLY offered by registered DUBAII UK professionals, and anyone outside of this database will be approached legally via our on site legal dispute team. The DUBAII UK training is ONLY approved and accredited by COSMETOLOGY CPD.

DUBAII UK HAS A COPY RIGHT REPRESENTATION.

COURSE MANAULS ARE ALSO INCLUDED WITHIN THIS COPY RIGHT LEGALITY.

Contact email, if required - dubaiiuk@rejuvcosinternational.com