4 Term Breakdown

Term 1 - Discovering the joy of musical theatre

- ❖ Sharing our favourite musicals and getting to know each other
- ❖ Kick off the year learning routines and songs from musicals 'The Lion King' and 'Cats'
- ❖ Work on animal characterisation through games and role play
- ❖ Devise and improvise our own scenes to compliment the routines

Term 2 → Exploring choreography and script work

- ❖ We will select another musical as a group and begin to learn dances and songs with students having an input to the choreography
- ❖ Explore characterisation through improvising and script work
- ❖ Students will work in groups to perform scripts from our selected musical

Term 3 → Devising and writing

- ❖ Students will have the opportunity to select another musical to work on
- ❖ They will have input into choreograph when learning routines
- ❖ A stronger focus on breathing and singing techniques
- ❖ Children will devise and write their own versions of scripts around the performance numbers

Term 4 → End of year performance

- ❖ Select our favourite pieces from the year to refine and rehearse
- ❖ Work as a team to collaborate a mini musical
- ❖ Hone our singing, dancing and acting skills and work on stage presence, voice projection and the thrill of performing for our end of year show!
