

Office of the County Judge
FORT BEND COUNTY, TEXAS
Proclamation

- WHEREAS, Every September, we observe National Child Welfare Professionals Month to honor the dedicated heroes who protect, nurture, and uplift vulnerable children and families across Fort Bend County; and
- WHEREAS, Child welfare professionals serve as the compassionate first point of contact for families in crisis, working tirelessly to ensure children's safety, restore hope, and build paths toward lasting stability; and
- WHEREAS, Family Roots for Life, Inc., a Greater Houston-based nonprofit, exemplifies this vital mission by serving Fort Bend County and twelve surrounding counties, providing trauma-informed, culturally responsive, and evidence-based social, emotional, and behavioral health services; and
- WHEREAS, Through early intervention, mentorship, life skills development, and family connection services, Family Roots for Life, Inc. empowers youth aging out of foster care, justice-involved young people, and adoptive and biological families, breaking cycles of homelessness and hardship while instilling confidence and resilience; and
- WHEREAS, By offering barrier-free, confidential support both virtually and through local community partnerships, Family Roots for Life, Inc. ensures that life-changing assistance remains accessible to every child and family in need, regardless of their circumstances.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Daniel Wong, Fort Bend County Judge of Fort Bend County, Texas, do hereby proclaim September as in Fort Bend County and encourage all residents to express deep gratitude to our child welfare professionals and support organizations like Family Roots for Life, Inc. for their unwavering commitment to reuniting, reconnecting, and restoring the families who form the bedrock of our community.

In Witness Whereof, I have caused the Official Seal of the Office of the County Judge to be affixed this 4th day of September 2026.

Daniel Wong, Fort Bend County Judge
