ADMINISTRATION

Congratulations from the Administrative Team

Vice Principal

Our Main Stage Program involves over 80 students working in the following areas: Technical Theatre, Orchestra, Dance, Choral, Drama/Acting and Directing and Stage Management. They have put in numerous hours honing their skills and the culmination of all this effort is this year's Main Stage performance, "Annie Get Your Gun". This 1946 Irving Berlin musical appeals to the old-fashioned romantic in us all while providing a rip-roaring western comedy. We want to congratulate all these students for the superior work and efforts.

There are also numerous behind the scenes personnel who assisted in the successful production of this show. The collective efforts of these individuals give credence to the fact that we must "never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has." Margaret Mead The essence of a production such as this lies in the collective effort and dedication of the cast, crew and individuals who commit themselves to countless hours of work and time to ensure that a production of this magnitude not only inspires, but also provides a medium from which lifelong learning opportunities could be fostered and nurtured.

Thank you to our very talented and dedicated Artistic Directors who have put in copious hours: Laura Myers, Kathie Van Lare, Kristin Stearn, Hilary Calder, Christine Victor-Horner and Jody Swift. As well, we have an incredibly supportive parent group. They have logged extraordinary volunteer hours supporting our students and staff. A special "thank you" to the co-chairs of our Parent Guild, Pam Francis and Deb Schafer, our sponsorship co-chairs, Linda and Alfred Schorath, treasurer Denise Teron, teachers Terry Ralph, Jim Jones, Virgil Green, Greg Poile and other staff of FCHS/AHSFA. Without your support this show would not be possible.

Lastly, we would like to thank our sponsors. Their dedication to education and the fine arts is extraordinary. Please take the time to note who they are in the program and, where possible, support them.

We are confident that this will be one of the finest Main Stage productions ever. We are proud of what our students have accomplished. Thank you for your support and sit back and enjoy. It is a great day to be a Falcon!

DIRECTOR'S COMMENTS

It's hard to believe that this is our 15th Annual Main Stage production! With this year's show, we continue the FCHS / AHSFA tradition of bringing great musicals to the stage. Based on the real life legend Annie Oakley, this musical blends humour and romance in just the right combinations.

It's been challenging to coordinate all of the different facets of a production of this magnitude but, like any great team, we have come together like a well-oiled machine. There are many people who need our thanks. Specifically, Pam Francis and Deb Schafer who have been responsible for the Parent Guild, Alfred and Linda Schorath who have worked tirelessly with the sponsorship committee, Denise Teron our treasurer and Lis Lockwood and Cheryl Knight who have done countless other tasks behind the scenes to promote and enhance this production. Terry Ralph and his students for their work in program design and layout, Jim Jones and the Building Construction Department, Virgil Green with his Fabrication Studies students and Greg Poile and his staff have all played key roles in this production. Thank you for everything you do.

There have been some amazing moments over the past few months: laughter, tears, hysterics and hysteria; frustration and jubilation... it runs the gamut. But every moment is worth it when you see the joy on the faces of our students as they perform for you this evening. We know you will enjoy tonight's celebration of both the life of Annie Oakley and the lives of our talented and eager young students as we proudly present "Annie Get Your Gun!"

ACT I

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

There's No Business Like Show Business and Colonel Buffalo Bill Cody and his star sharpshooter Frank Butler are determined to bring the Wild West to the eastern populace of America and plan on getting rich and famous in the process. But Pawnee Bill, a former performer with the show, starts his own and they compete for dollars in every town they play. To make matters worse, he may be signing the famous Chief Sitting Bull as a main attraction. When Frank stumbles on Annie, a grimy little girl from the frontier of Ohio whose only education is Doin' What Comes Natur'lly, he's met his match. Annie falls instantly in love, but Frank's delicate ego needs a little more encouragement. Annie realizes that You Can't Get a Man with a Gun, especially when she beats Frank in the local shooting contest. When Buffalo Bill and Charlie Davenport (the show manager) hit on the idea of putting Annie in the show, Frank is seriously reluctant (he doesn't like being shown up by a woman). Annie agrees to do anything simply to be near Frank. Flattered, he relents. Buffalo Bill and Charlie are certain that this is the gimmick they need to crush Pawnee Bill.

When Buffalo Bill and Charlie Davenport encourage Annie to "surprise" Frank with a fantastic trick she's been practicing, Frank is livid. It's taken him years to get star billing and he isn't giving it up, especially not to a girl. Frank's assistant, the nasty and jealous Dolly Tate, encourages him to leave the show to join up with Pawnee Bill and Annie is left heartbroken.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show tours Europe with great success and Annie gets medals from all of the heads of Europe. But, when they return to America, the show is broke – royalty doesn't pay for tickets – so when Buffalo Bill and Charlie find out that Pawnee Bill is playing Madison Square Gardens, they hit on the idea to merge the shows. Annie is thrilled because now it's possible for her to once again get Lost in His Arms.

But things aren't so rosey for Pawnee Bill either and when the fact that both shows are broke is revealed, Sitting Bull encourages Annie to sell all her medals to pay for the merger. Reluctantly, Annie seizes the opportunity to patch things up with Frank and agrees to back the show. After all, who needs money when you've got The Sun In the Morning? Love is in the air and after Frank proposes An Old Fashioned Wedding, everything is wonderful. Until ...

A LITTLE HISTORY

Annie Oakley's given name was Pheobe Anne Moses. She was born in Darke County, Ohio on August 13th, 1860 to Jacob and Susan Moses. By the age of twelve, Annie could shoot the heads off running quail.

When she was fifteen she met her future husband, sharpshooter Frank Butler, by handily beating him in a shooting competition. After the Baughman and Butler Shooting Act performed in Cincinnati, Butler made a bet he could beat any local who would compete against him. On Thanksgiving of 1875, he competed against Annie Oakley in a little town near Greenville, Ohio and she easily beat him. The pair fell in love, married and did sharpshooting demonstrations together for years, including traveling with the Sells Brother Circus. It was during this time that Butler eventually realized that Annie was a better shot and a better performer and he gave up shooting to become her manager.

Born: August 13, 1860 in Darke County, Ohio
Died: November 2, 1926 in Dayton, Ohio

without causing any harm to the Kaiser.

Annie was injured in a serious train accident in 1901 and it took several surgeries and significant recuperation before she was able to recover completely enough to shoot again. She gave up the Wild West Show, but continued to do demonstrations and in 1922 at the age of sixty-two, she hit 100 clay targets in a row from 16 yards, breaking a record.

Throughout her life, Annie gave free shooting lessons and performances to aid widows, orphans and women who wanted to get an education. She also personally assisted twenty young women financially so that they could pursue careers. She is a member of the National Women's Hall of Fame and the Cowgirl's Hall of Fame. She died at the age of 66.

The Wild West Show Performers

DIRECTORS

Laura Myers - Artistic Director

Laura has had a checkered past that includes extensive dance training, organizing parties and pub crawls, operating television cameras and rolling miles of both audio and video cable. As both an English and theatre teacher at the school for the past nine years, Laura has been involved in numerous Main Stage productions, but this is her first as Artistic Director. Love and kisses to Ella and Charlie and heaps of thanks to the "Stay Sane" promotional team.

Kristin Stearn - Vocals Director

"Annie Get Your Gun" is the second musical theatre show Kristin has worked on at FCHS / AHSFA. In addition to working on musical theatre shows, Kristin also teaches choir, vocal jazz and some band at FCHS / AHSFA. Prior to her teaching career, Kristin was a freelance musician in B.C., playing with such groups as the Victoria Symphony and the Okanagan Symphony, as well as being hired for various vocal gigs. Thanks to everyone for their hard work and another great show!

Kathie Van Lare - Orchestra Director

Annie Get Your Gun is Kathie's sixth show as the orchestra director. In addition to being a music director here at FCHS/AHSFA, Kathie is also in steady demand as a guest conductor, adjudicator, trumpet clinician and free-lance trumpet player throughout central and southern Alberta. In all her 'spare' time she enjoys following Major League Baseball and being at home with the many animals: dogs, cats, horses and Matt. Favorite Quote: "Of course it's hard, the hard is what makes it great! If it wasn't hard, everyone would do it!"

Hilary Calder - Dance Director

This is Hilary's third Main Stage production and she is looking forward to it once more! "Once more, unto the breach dear friends, once more!!" Hilary's background includes acting in several productions with training from University of Calgary, Red Deer College and the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. Hilary thanks Laura, Kristin, Kathie, Chris and Jody for another "interesting" yet fun round of Main Stage!

Christine Victor-Horner - Technical Director

Christine is so very grateful for the opportunity to rekindle her love and adulation of the theatre this semester (though her students would attest that she never really left the theatre behind!). Before she moved west, much of her life was spent in various theatres throughout Manitoba - home for her. Since, she's felt like she's returned "home" through her involvement in this production. Thanks to all her students for tolerating a whole new version of English teacher "crazy" for the last couple of months. Soon, she'll be back to "normal". None of this is possible without the genius of all the directors. To Kristen, Hilary, Kathie, Jody (who passed the torch) and Laura: it is a privilege to have shared the vision... and to Richard, the one who's there at the end of the day, her love and gratitude.
