Key Achievements

- Designed, developed and led the Kingswood Park Project 'Festival of Opportunities' as the major student assessment activity for Certificate IV in Community Services (2013). This was a pro-active culturally inclusive, community-based project aimed to engage public school youth living in a low socio-economic environment opportunity to express their creativity in a talent show, which also raised money for dancing shoes needed by the school and increased awareness of local services in the area. This event was declared a strong success by the local MP, the school principal and the surveyed community.
