Ride Share & Delivery Supplement

Safeguard your livelihood with comprehensive legal protection.

Whether you drive for extra income or a full-time job, we'll help you keep traveling smoothly. One too many traffic violations can make you a liability to companies that provide ride share and delivery services, which could end your ability to work for them. Aside from that, many ride share and delivery drivers use their personal vehicles, making legal assistance even more critical. As an addition to the LegalShield Legal Plan, drivers can now access our Ride Share and Delivery Supplement. You'll receive:

The number of Americans
using ride-hailing apps has increased more than 100%

since 2015.*

51%
of Americans ages 18-29
have used a ride sharing
service.*
