

TOWN OF BARNSTABLE TOWN COUNCIL ELECTION 2023BarnstableWatch CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRE

Thank you for stepping forward to serve the Barnstable community by seeking a seat on our Town Council in the fall 2023 election.

About BarnstableWatch

BarnstableWatch is a community organization initially founded to protect our housing stock for use as homes for locals rather than use by non-resident investors as more profitable short-term rentals. BarnstableWatch supports Cape rental traditions, not the 'Anything goes-Anywhere-All the time Airbnb approach.' Since its foundation, BarnstableWatch followers have asked for information about planning and zoning more broadly. BarnstableWatch therefore follows local public bodies and shares information.

About This Questionnaire

BarnstableWatch provides this opportunity to each candidate running for a Town Council seat in the fall 2023 election to provide 250-word responses to four planning and zoning-related questions below. The purpose of this questionnaire is to provide information that residents interested in planning and zoning may assess for themselves.

Please use this word document to respond to each of the four questions on the following pages. Please include your name and precinct number on each page. Please respond in 250 words or less, and via typewritten text (not handwritten). Please send your responses by 5:00 p.m. on Friday October 6, 2023 to BarnstableWatch@gmail.com.

BarnstableWatch will send all responses (up to 250 words) to its email list of many hundreds of residents across the Town of Barnstable. BarnstableWatch will not characterize responses or encourage its followers to vote for or against any candidate. If you choose not to respond, BarnstableWatch will simply note that fact in its mailing.

Thank you for responding to help voters make informed decisions.

CANDIDATE NAME Craig Tamash PRECINCT NUMBER 4 Question No. 1Thank you for being direct and concise in 250 words per question.*

1. Context: The Town Council recently changed zoning in Downtown Hyannis to enable dense building development and increased building height by right.¹ It did this in the name of housing.² Despite housing needs, and the Town’s consultant statement³ that the Town could regulate short-term rental use of new housing units in this zoning framework, the Town Council chose not to do so.

Question: To increase year-round housing supply for locals, do you support regulating incremental housing units, made possible by zoning changes to increase building density and height, to be used as year-round housing, i.e., restrict use as short-term rentals? Why or why not?

Answer:

Absolutely! The conversion of year round or even seasonal rentals to STR’s is one of several reasons for the shortage of workforce housing. For the Town to approve a housing development and have 10% to be “affordable” is crazy. We will never build our way out of this crisis at that rate. Market rate, affordable, subsidized and STR’s all have their place. Our question is, how do we balance these components to get the housing we need.

2. Context: When the Town of Barnstable asked people what kind of housing they want more of, the number one answer people gave was more single-family homes.⁴ On the other hand, a housing advocacy organization states that “[s]ingle-family zoning is the ‘heart of the housing crisis’ in its call for zoning changes.⁵ The Town Planning Director calls single-family zoning a “burden” on the community, and said the Accessory Dwelling Unit zoning change was a “babystep” to “pushing back” on the “legacy” of single-family residential zoning.⁶

Question: Do you support keeping single-family zoning in those areas of town now zoned for single-family use? Why or why not?

Answer:

I support keeping single family zoning in those areas of the town now zoned for single family use. The establishment of a “neighborhood” feel is a critical component in keeping a community vibrant. Having said that, I am in favor of accessory dwelling units where the owner is on site, and it is not used for STR’s. This has several advantages. The first is that it will increase the available housing stock. Second, it will assist the homeowner with expenses, and lastly it will result in increased tax revenue for the Town.

3. Context: Across the country, cities and towns - including thriving tourist communities - protect existing housing stock for use as homes by locals. They adopt any one of a number of diverse ways towns can prevent or limit non-resident investors from using homes as more profitable short-term rentals.⁷ There are lots of ways for towns to limit or end the heartbreaking stories we hear each spring about locals getting kicked out of their rentals to make way for more lucrative short-term renters. Town Housing staff said this about incenting seasonal homeowners to rent year-round rather than short-term: “We have a large housing stock. It’s just not being used to house our residents.”⁸ The Town Council has taken no action in this respect to prioritize locals in the use of our housing stock.

Question: Do you support adopting some means to return some homes used as short-term rentals to year-round housing use for locals (other than by one means a local developer has sought, which is for the town to pay property owners via tax incentives not to short-term rent their property)? Why or why not?

Answer:

Yes. I believe as a general rule, short term rentals are a detriment to the community and particularly the neighborhoods they are located in. In my own personal experience STR’s can quickly result in the loss of neighbors and result in increased noise, trash, and aggravation for those remaining. The question is, how do we do this? One method may be by limiting the number of STR’s, expanding the number of days required as a minimum for rental and a greater emphasis on monitoring the STR’s.

CANDIDATE NAME Craig Tamash PRECINCT NUMBER 4 Question No. 4

Thank you for being direct and concise in 250 words per question.

4. Context: The Town of Barnstable regularly says it needs more affordable housing units. In the recent form-based zoning changes in downtown Hyannis (about which its consultant said “...any near-term development is going to be on the upper end of market rate...that means they are going to be expensive units”⁹) the Town Council did not include any affordability requirement(s). In the Accessory Dwelling Unit-by right ordinance change, the Town Council did not include any affordability requirement(s).¹⁰ When developers wanted a more profitable use of land at 850 Falmouth Road in Hyannis than the zoning code required, the Town Council said yes: The Residences at 850 in Hyannis is today advertised as a Luxury Apartment Community. It sits on land that had been zoned to be 100% affordable housing, with a preference for Barnstable residents and Veterans.

Question: Please comment on whether you would leave pricing to developers and property owners, or incorporate affordability into approvals?

Answer:

As I have previously stated, It is critical to incorporate affordability requirements into approvals. The Residences at 850 is a perfect example. It has been said that there is no monitoring of developers to ensure that all approval conditions have been met. This has got to change. Prior to the issuance of an occupancy permit and subsequent to its periodic reissue, a review of each property to ensure it is in compliance should be conducted.
