PRESIDENT'S CORNER By Deborah L. Bauer

October has been a busy month for CFAS!

As CFAS's chapter representative to the Florida Anthropological Society, I attended the FAS state board 3rd quarterly meeting that was held on October 19, 2019 in Gainesville, Florida. I submitted a 3rd Quarter Report on CFAS's activities and progress prior to the meeting. Copies of that report are available on the CFAS website for those who wish to view it. As a part of my goal to help CFAS become more active on the state level, I volunteered to serve on the 2020 Awards Subcommittee. The next FAS board meeting will be held in February 2020.

I'm pleased to report that CFAS's growth continues. We are trying to organize a social dinner (pay your own way) to be held at a Winter Park restaurant close to the Winter Park Library a couple of hours before we meet for the December 2019 guest lecture. Stay tuned for details...

Please don't forget that there is no CFAS meeting in January 2020. Our meeting falls on what is normally the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday and the Winter Park Library is closed. As a result, we will hold our officer elections at the February 2020 meeting. I want to thank Susan Harrington and Rich Ott for joining our ranks as Secretary and Media Relations Liaison respectively. We are still in desperate need of a treasurer. If you would like to learn more about the job to find out what the work entails and what type of time commitment is involved, please reach out to me at centralflorida.fas@gmail.com, and I would be happy to speak with anyone about the details!

I hope that you all have a safe and blessed Thanksgiving Holiday!

CFAS ON-LINE

Earlier this year we reported that the new CFAS website has been launched at https://cfasorlando.com/. It is currently being populated with CFAS historical data, e.g. minutes and agendas, as well as upcoming events. Everyone is encouraged to take a look at the new site and to add their email address so they can receive CFAS newsletters and bulletins. In addition, if anyone has CFAS historical data available that can be uploaded, please let us know!

2020 ELECTION BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

At the November 18, 2019 meeting, the slate of candidates for the board for the year 2020 will be announced. They are:

President: Deborah L. Bauer

Vice-President: Edward González-Tennant

Secretary: Susan Harrington

Treasurer: tbd

Media Relations Liaison: Richard J. Ott

We would like to thank Rich and Susan in stepping up to serve as CFAS officers. Their help is very much appreciated. We are still in need of a treasurer for our organization. Your help is needed! These candidates will be voted on at the February 2020 meeting where additional nominations from the floor will be accepted. We welcome and look forward to new people joining us.

IT IS TIME TO PAY YOUR 2020 DUES BY CHECK OR PAY PAL

Please remember that our sole source of income to provide our interesting archaeological and historical presentations is your dues. Please note that CFAS dues run on the calendar year (January 1 through December 31), not from the date you join. Dues can be paid via credit card/PayPal on the CFAS website, by mailing a check to our P.O. Box, or in cash at a CFAS meeting.

OCTOBER 2019 PRESENTATION

Dr. Shana Harris, University of Central Florida, provided an interesting perspective in her presentation on A Therapeutic Trip: Treating Drug Addiction with Psychedelics in Mexico. Her research stems from time she spent at two drug treatment centers she visited in Baja California. These treatment centers use the drug ibogaine to help patients battle withdrawal symptoms from other drugs such as heroin and cocaine. Dr. Harris indicated that ibogaine has been an outlawed substance in the United States since the 1960s. The illegality of ibogaine limits the amount of data that is available on success rates. She did not in her preliminary findings discover that most patients who received ibogaine treatment were male and from higher socio-economic backgrounds than low-income ones. Harris spent a great amount of her time conducting ethnographic interviews with patients during their entire treatment process which resulted in her collecting some vividly detailed first-person narratives. She feels this research is just beginning and holds much promise from an ethnographic standpoint.

DECEMBER 2019 PRESENTATION

Our speaker for December 16 will be Dr. Zackary Gilmore from Rollins, speaking on The Baker Museum at Rollins: Relics and Tales from a Forgotten Collection. More information to come next Month!

NEWS FROM FAS STATE BOARD MEETING IN OCTOBER

On October 19, 2019, Deborah Bauer attended the Florida Anthropological Society's state board meeting in Gainesville, Florida. The board discussed a number of issues of interest to CFAS members. First, plans are moving along for the 2020 FAS annual meeting that is being held in Naples in May 2020. The conference is being held at the Ritz Carlton Hotel and negotiated an outstanding rate for conference guests. In addition to the days of the conference itself, the conference rate will be honored by the hotel for three days before the start of the conference and three days after the end of the conference. The focus of the conference will be issues related to the return of the famous Key Marco Cat statute to the state of Florida from the Smithsonian. Possible themes for future Florida Archaeological Month were discussed. A favorite theme for use in the near future seems to be about African American cemetery preservation. The board also discussed possible sites for the 2021 and 2022 meetings which included Orlando and Miami. FAS also discussed raising membership rates effective in the 2021 calendar year. No decision was made.

FLORIDA ANTHROPOLOGICAL SOCIETY (FAS) AWARDS & GRANTS

As stated in the FAS August newsletter, FAS Awards & Grants nominations are due in December. As a reminder, here are the awards and due dates:

Ripley P. Bullen Award—nominations due by December 15. This award is designed to recognize professional archaeologists who foster the good spirit of ol' Rip.

William C. Lazarus Award—nominations due by December 15. This award is designed to recognize an FAS member who exemplifies the likes of Colonel Lazarus in regards to his accomplishments and contributions to FAS and the wider community.

Arthur R. Lee Chapter Award—nominations are made by the Awards Committee. But, gentle nudges to the committee may be provided before January 15.

For more information on these awards as well as other grants and research $$ go to the awards tab on the FAS website at https://fasweb.org/fas-awards/. If any undergraduates need help with the applications, they can contact centralflorida.fas@gmail.com for assistance and we'd be happy to help.

SHAMELESS PLUGS OF NON-CFAS EVENTS

1. FPAN Presentation:

FPAN is presenting a program entitled "Florida Tales Through Ales Presents A Sticky Situation: Turpentining Industry in Florida" on December 10, 2019, 7 to 8 pm. The presenter is Barbra Clark from the North Central FPAN office. The location is Wops Hops Brewery, 419 Sanford Ave, Sanford, FL 32771.

2. Seminole County Historical Society 4th Quarterly Speaker:

Please join us for a special presentation entitled "Chasing Her 'Husband' Through the Center of Florida" by Deborah L. Bauer about the husbands and wives of colonial Florida. Learn about how marriages in the REAL good ole days weren't so different from what they are today!

In the mid-1760s, an unnamed woman became pregnant with the child of a naval officer, Ensign St. John, stationed in Pensacola, Florida. Over the next three years, the woman crisscrossed the colonial provinces of East and West Florida. She traveled all over what would one day become the state of Florida searching for the father of her child and the man she considered her husband. She went from Pensacola to St. Augustine and back again attempting to reunite with her "husband." The woman's "hunt" for her "husband" became so notorious that it drew the attention of some of the highest-ranking military officers in British North America, including General Frederick Haldimand and General Thomas Gage (yes, that General Gage who fought against the Patriots during the American Revolution!). Who was this woman, and what does her story tell us about the shifting nature marriage on the English-Spanish frontier in the 1700s? The story of "Mrs." St. John and others like her shows us how the relationships between men and women have changed and how they've stayed the same over almost three hundred years of history in Florida!

The presentation should begin at approximately 7 pm on Tuesday, November 19, 2019 at the Agricultural Extension Auditorium, 250 W County Home Rd, Sanford, FL 32773-6189, United States. Light refreshments will be served. It is free and open to the public!

3. University of Central Florida College of Sciences Presentation

Edward González-Tennant, Ph.D, Lecturer, Department of Anthropology, will be presenting "Unearthing Rosewood: An Archaeology of Violence and Hope" on Wednesday, February 26, 2020 at 6 pm at the Tuscawilla Country Club, 1500 Winter Springs Blvd., Winter Springs, FL 32708. Please RSVP at https://sciences.ucf.edu/dss/edward-gonzalez-tennant-ph-d/.

THE 2014 MITMIT: PRACTICING PRIVATE HERITAGE IN YAP STATE, FSM

Dr. Krause's talk considers how cultural heritage processes leverage the past within fields of power found in the present by discussing an ethnographic case study of heritage processes in action that were observed and recorded during fieldwork in 2013 and 2014 on the Main Islands of Yap State-the westernmost state of the Federated States of Micronesia. A description will be provided of a historic traditional gathering known as a mitmit which, from the day it was decided upon, activated the transmission of cultural heritage knowledge and activities throughout Yap's Main Islands. The goal is to not only describe the benefits of the mitmit in preserving elements of Yapese cultural heritage, but to also consider the value of a more inclusive understanding of the concept of heritage that recognizes the role of locally produced heritage discourses in informing preservation efforts. It is argued that Chambers' (2006) work distinguishing between public and private heritage processes provides an advantageous methodology for thinking about heritage in a way that better addresses the empowerment of stakeholders such as those in Yap whose heritage interests may not always align with those found in the dominant heritage discourses.

CFAS AND FAS MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS

We encourage those interested in Florida archaeology/anthropology to become members of The Florida Anthropological Society (FAS) and The Central Florida Anthropological Society (CFAS). Annual dues are due in January and membership applications to both organizations are attached. Membership in the FAS provides you with four annual volumes of The Florida Anthropologist and occasional newsletters on anthropological events in Florida in addition to the annual statewide meeting. More information on FAS can be found online at: www.fasweb.org. Membership in CFAS offers you a local series of talks on archaeological and anthropological subjects that you can attend. The CFAS newsletter keeps you up to date on local events as well as other important archaeological topics. We urge you to support both with your membership. All of the CFAS Lecture Series are open to the public at no charge.

Central Florida Anthropological Society P.O. Box 530005 Orlando, FL 32853

Website: http://www.cfasorlando.com www.facebook.com/groups/CentralFloridaAnthropologicalSociety E-mail: centralflorida.fas@gmail.com Twitter: @CFASOrlando

Membership in CFAS is open to all interested individuals have an interest in the prehistory or history of Florida as well as the anthropological fields of archaeology, cultural anthropology, and many other sub fields, who are dedicated to the preservation of Florida's shared cultural heritage, and who are willing to abide by the FAS statement of ethics (FASweb.org).

Membership is for one calendar year (running from January 1st until December 31st no matter what day of the year you join.)

> Students $10 Individual $20 Family $25

Membership guarantees the following benefits: notification of the latest archaeology & anthropological happenings in Central Florida & beyond; early notification of speakers in our popular monthly Guest Lecture speaker series; opportunities to volunteer on archaeological digs; the ability to apply for scholarships the society funds to allows students to attend the annual Florida Anthropological Society conference; membership to our monthly newsletter; and fellowship opportunities with people of likeminded anthropology or anthropology related professions and/or hobbies.

Objectives of the Florida Anthropological Society (FAS) and thus CFAS are:

- 1. To provide a formal means by which individuals interested in anthropological and archaeological studies in the State of Florida and related areas may come together for mutual benefits;
- To promote the continuing study of the peoples of Florida from ancient times to the present;
- To establish and promulgate to its members and to the general public, rules of conduct, a code of ethics, and standards of quality to govern anthropological work
- 4. To effect harmony and cooperation between the amateur and professional anthropologist and archaeologist so that the work of all will permanently enrich our knowledge of human history;
- 5. To bring to the attention of the general public and of appropriate governmental agencies the need for preservation of archaeological and historical sites within 10. Membership in the Society is open to all interested the State of Florida as well as for the recording of the ways of live of extant groups in Florida and related areas.
- 6. To disseminate information on anthropology and archaeology and in particular on the work of the Society members through periodic, regularly scheduled meetings of the Society, through a program of publications by the Society, and through such special events and other activities as the Society may consider proper to further its objectives;
- 7. To assist in establishing archaeological museums through contributions or gifts of materials or money;
- 8. To encourage the scientific collections, preservation, classification, study and publication of ethnological materials and archaeological remains; and
- To initiate and maintain appropriate By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations in the best interests of all its
  - individuals who are willing to abide by the FAS statement of ethics.

Our parent organization needs you too! Chapters of FAS operate largely independently, but adhere to an agreed upon code of ethics and organizational structure that is maintained by the state organization. Unfortunately, we do not have a system in place wherein membership in a regional chapter gives membership in the statewide society. Please consider joining the statewide society to support their work. Joining is easy as you can do it online at FASweb.org.
