PRESIDENT'S CORNER By Deborah L. Bauer

There was no meeting of CFAS in January because of the Dr. Martin Luther King Day federal holiday. However, we have been hard at work preparing for the rest of the spring slate of the 2019-2020 Guest Lecture Speaker Series. We will soon be announcing all of our speakers and their presentation titles through June. In addition, we have already booked half of the Fall 2020 slate for next year's 2020-2021 series. One of the other things we are really excited about, technology gremlins hopefully being held at bay, is that we plan to livestream our presentation for February 2020 on Turnbull's Wharf by Ms. Tracy Lovingood of USF via Facebook Live. We will also make this lecture available via CFAS's Youtube channel, https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCYrZLdTSBC_P0wDNNZMR5YQ . It's also our pleasure to announce that FAS has released its 2020 Call for Papers. We STRONGLY encourage our members and other friends in the Central Florida community to consider submitting a proposal for a poster or individual paper presentation. If you are not certain how to put together a proposal like this, please reach out to us at centralflorida.fas@gmail.com. We can't guarantee your proposal will get accepted, but we are here to help with some tips and pointers! In anticipation of the next quarterly meeting of the FAS board, I have also submitted our 4th Quarter Report for 2019. It is available on the CFAS website for your viewing and can also be found at the back of this newsletter. Last, but certainly not least, Happy Valentine's Day!

EN MEMORIUM: DR. ROGER SMITH

CFAS is saddened to announce the passing of famed archaeologist Dr. Roger Smith.

Florida's Division of Historical Resources shared the following details on Dr. Smith's life: We at the Division of Historical Resources wish to express our sadness over the recent loss of Dr. Roger Smith, retired State Underwater Archaeologist. An esteemed colleague, Roger served DHR for more than three decades and greatly contributed to our understanding and appreciation of historic shipwrecks in Florida waters. During the height of shipwreck salvage, Roger redirected the State's efforts to the scientific investigation of shipwrecks. One of his most notable projects was the Emanuel Point Shipwreck in collaboration with the University of West Florida's archaeologists. He also fostered Florida's Historic Shipwreck

Preserves, a series of submerged sites in Florida that were identified, recorded, and promoted in partnership with local coastal communities. We will always be grateful to Roger for his unwavering support and advocacy of Florida's underwater archaeological sites. Most of all, we will miss him as a friend and member of Florida's archaeological family.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Smith family at this difficult time.

CALL FOR PAPERS & POSTERS

The Florida Anthropological Society invites the submission of abstracts for paper and poster presentations at the 72nd annual meeting in Naples. We encourage submissions on a broad range of topics pertaining to Florida anthropology, archaeology, history, and other related disciplines. Presentations will occur on Saturday, May 9, 2020, at the conference venue.

Please note the following abstract submission guidelines:

- An abstract of no more than 100 words is required from each presenter
- Individuals may submit only one paper or poster as first author for consideration
- A 20-minute time limit for each paper will be strictly enforced
- All presenters must register and pay the appropriate registration fee at the time they submit their abstract.

Co-presenters in attendance at the conference may register up to and including the day of the conference. Advance registration rates are available through April 7, 2020 at $50 for FAS members, $60 for non-members. Students enjoy a fifty percent reduction in registration rate. After April 7, 2020, a late registration fee of $15 applies to all categories. We encourage all attendees to consider becoming FAS members. FAS Membership, as well as FAS 2020 Conference registration and abstract submission access is available through the FAS website. Abstract submission deadline is Friday, March 20, 2020.

The deadline for proposing an Organized Session, panel discussions, or other special programs associated with the conference is Friday, February 21, 2010. Email questions and organized session submissions to Theresa Schober at tmschober@earthlink.net.

IT IS TIME TO PAY YOUR 2020 DUES BY CHECK OR PAY PAL

Please remember that our sole source of income to provide our interesting archaeological and historical presentations is your dues. Please note that CFAS dues run on the calendar year (January 1 through December 31), not from the date you join. Dues can be paid via credit card/PayPal on the CFAS website, by mailing a check to our P.O. Box at P.O. Box 530005, Orlando, FL 32853, or in cash at a CFAS meeting.

2020 ELECTION BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

At the December 16, 2019 meeting, the slate of candidates for the board for the year 2020 were announced. They are:

President & Treasurer: Deborah L. Bauer
Vice-President: Edward González-Tennant
Secretary: Susan Harrington
Media Relations Liaison: Richard J. Ott

We are still in need of a treasurer for our organization. Your help is needed! These candidates will be voted on at the February 17, 2020 meeting where additional nominations from the floor will be accepted. We welcome and look forward to new people joining us.

Overturing the Turnbull Settlement of New Smyrna Beach: Artifact Analysis of the Old Stone Wharf

The Turnbull Settlement of New Smyrna Beach, Florida, was one of many short-lived attempts at British dominance in the new colony taken over from Spain. Dr. Turnbull of Scotland established the settlement as a plantation in 1766, which subsequently failed in 1777. A wharf located in the center of the town served as the primary point for trade. This presentation provides a snapshot analysis of the ceramic artifacts analyzed from this wharf site and a tentative interpretation of the results.

Ms. Lovingood is a navy veteran and UCF alumna that is currently working on finishing her Master's at the University of South Florida in Applied Anthropology on the Archaeology track. She studies under Dr. Diane Wallman and hopes to be graduating in May 2020. Her focus has been on the Turnbull Settlement of New Smyrna Beach, Florida, during the short-lived British Colonial period. Her goal is to continue doing work in Historical Archaeology and ceramics of the British Period, including trade networks during that same time. She is a Florida native, and would like to continue research on the state's forgotten histories and to strengthen a case for more prominent position of Florida in the British Colonial trade networks and roles and influences in the history of the United States.

CFAS AND FAS MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS

We encourage those interested in Florida archaeology/anthropology to become members of The Florida Anthropological Society (FAS) and The Central Florida Anthropological Society (CFAS). Annual dues are due in January and membership applications to both organizations are attached. Membership in the FAS provides you with four annual volumes of The Florida Anthropologist and occasional newsletters on anthropological events in Florida in addition to the annual statewide meeting. More information on FAS can be found online at: www.fasweb.org. Membership in CFAS offers you a local series of talks on archaeological and anthropological subjects that you can attend. The CFAS newsletter keeps you up to date on local events as well as other important archaeological topics. We urge you to support both with your membership. All of the CFAS Lecture Series are open to the public at no charge.

E-mail: centralflorida.fas@email.com Twitter: @CFASOrlando

Membership in CFAS is open to all interested individuals who have an interest in the prehistory or history of Florida as well as the anthropological fields of archaeology, cultural anthropology, and many other sub fields, who are dedicated to the preservation of Florida's shared cultural heritage, and who are willing to abide by the FAS statement of ethics (FASweb.org).

Membership is for one calendar year (running from January 1st until December 31st no matter what day of the year you join.)

Students	$10
Individual	$20
Family	$25

Membership guarantees the following benefits: notification of the latest archaeology & anthropological happenings in Central Florida & beyond; early notification of speakers in our popular monthly Guest Lecture speaker series; opportunities to volunteer on archaeological digs; the ability to apply for scholarships the society funds to allow students to attend the annual Florida Anthropological Society conference; membership to our monthly newsletter; and fellowship opportunities with people of like-minded anthropology or anthropology related professions and/or hobbies.

Objectives of the Florida Anthropological Society (FAS) and thus CFAS are:

1. To provide a formal means by which individuals interested in anthropological and archaeological studies in the State of Florida and related areas may come together for mutual benefits;
2. To promote the continuing study of the peoples of Florida from ancient times to the present;
3. To establish and promulgate to its members and to the general public, rules of conduct, a code of ethics, and standards of quality to govern anthropological work
4. To effect harmony and cooperation between the amateur and professional anthropologist and archaeologist so that the work of all will permanently enrich our knowledge of human history;
5. To bring to the attention of the general public and of appropriate governmental agencies the need for preservation of archaeological and historical sites within the State of Florida as well as for the recording of the ways of life of extant groups in Florida and related areas.
6. To disseminate information on anthropology and archaeology and in particular on the work of the Society members through periodic, regularly scheduled meetings of the Society, through a program of publications by the Society, and through such special events and other activities as the Society may consider proper to further its objectives;
7. To assist in establishing archaeological museums through contributions or gifts of materials or money;
8. To encourage the scientific collections, preservation, classification, study and publication of ethnological materials and archaeological remains; and
9. To initiate and maintain appropriate By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations in the best interests of all its members.
10. Membership in the Society is open to all interested individuals who are willing to abide by the FAS statement of ethics.

Our parent organization needs you too! Chapters of FAS operate largely independently, but adhere to an agreed upon code of ethics and organizational structure that is maintained by the state organization. Unfortunately, we do not have a system in place wherein membership in a regional chapter gives membership in the statewide society. Please consider joining the statewide society to support their work. Joining is easy as you can do it online at FASweb.org.
