

Severe drought has affected Europe for more than two years and northern Africa for six years, causing water shortages to irrigate crops.

Casablanca, Morocco, and the wider area in January 2023 (left) and January 2024 (right).

Source: © EU, Copernicus Sentinel-2 imagery as of late January 2024.