Adam Holt Named 2016 President of Leading Recycling Trade Association
Allan Company's Santa Monica Facility Manager to Lead ACRI

San Gabriel, Calif., March 15, 2016 – The Association of California Recycling Industries (ACRI) has selected Adam Holt from Allan Company as its 2016 President. Holt recently served as Vice President and will succeed Brett Jones from City Fibers in leading the statewide association.

“As ACRI President, my goal is to continue to raise awareness of issues that directly impact the recycling industry and work with our partners and recyclers throughout the state to further and protect recycling policy,” stated Adam Holt, ACRI President. “On behalf of the thousands of men and women employed in the recycling industry, I am committed to ensuring our voices and priorities continue to be heard in Sacramento and throughout our state.”

Adam Holt earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History with a Minor in Sports Information from University of Southern California in 1994. Mr. Holt began working for Allan Company in 1998 and has managed the company's Santa Monica facility for the past 13 years.

“Recycling serves an important role in diverting trash from our state's landfills and helping to reach our state's recycling goals,” stated Holt. “ACRI is committed to promoting free market principles, demanding ethical practices and ensuring recycling jobs remain an important part of our state's infrastructure.”

Adam Holt will be installed as ACRI President, along with the 2016 Board of Directors, at the association's Annual Installation and General Membership Meeting on Thursday, March 24, 2016 at the Dal Rae Restaurant in Pico Rivera.
