GLENN A. RICHTER

Glenn Richter is in his 20th year at the University of Texas in Austin. He serves as a Professor of Instrumental Conducting in the School of Music, teaching courses in conducting, arranging, band literature, the music business, and honors seminars in the Plan II program. For 15 years he directed the UT Longhorn Band program, which was honored in 1986 by the Sudler Trophy. Under his direction the Longhorn Band program enjoyed many national profile performances, including Lincoln Center, The Today Show, two Presidential Inaugurations, and major concerts in the Houston Wortham Center and the Dallas Meyerson Center. Active as a guest conductor of all-state and regional honor ensembles, Professor Richter twice served as guest conductor of the Mid-Texas Symphony in 1997. He has written a Computer Instructional Module for undergraduate conductors that was presented to an International Conference on Technology in Education.

His teaching background includes appointments as Conductor of the University of Michigan Marching Band and the Director of Bands position at the College Conservatory of Music at the University of Cincinnati. His Austin Reagan and LBJ School bands were consistent sweepstakes award winners. In 1995 the UT Ex Students Association recognized Glenn Richter with their "Top Hand" Award. He and his wife, Kathleen, received a special leadership award from Austin Westlake High School for service to the schools. They have two children, Zach, a Pre-law senior at U.T. who has been accepted to Harvard Law School; and Kathleen, a freshman history major at UT and member of the UT Softball team.

Special thanks to Larry Campbell of Blinn College, Gary Liebst of North Harris College, Phillip Lowe of Hill College and Bob Johnson of Ranger College for making this year's Texas Community College All-State Band possible.
