Robert M. Blanton

Robert Blanton is currently in his 6th year on the faculty at Texas Christian University, where he holds the position of Professor of Music and Director of Bands. He began his teaching career in Richardson at West Jr. High School and later at Richardson High School, and then Klein High School, where he served as both Director of Bands and Director of Music Education.

At TCU, Mr. Blanton directs the activities of the Horned Frog Marching Band and conducts the Wind Ensemble, in addition to teaching instrumental music education courses. He also serves as administrator for the total Band Program, which includes two Jazz Ensembles, Basketball Band, Symphonic Band and a variety of small chamber ensembles.

Mr. Blanton has been very active as a conductor, clinician and adjudicator in Texas and the Southwest, having served as conductor for numerous All Region Bands and performance clinics.

Dr. Robert Morgan

Dr. Robert Morgan is Chairman of the Instrumental Music Department and Director of Jazz Studies at Houston's High School for Performing and Visual Arts, positions he has held since 1976. He was previously Director of the Jazz Program at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas.

The Jazz Program at HSPVA has gained national and even international renown for its vigorous training and extensive activities. The HSPVA Jazz Ensemble #1, under Morgan's direction, has recorded eight albums, garnering 19 "deebies" in the prestigious competition sponsored by Down Beat Magazine. The ensemble has toured extensively in the U.S. and abroad, with overseas tours to Norway/Denmark, Japan, Scotland, France, and a return to Norway.

In September 1986, Morgan was appointed to the Jazz Music Advisory Panel of the National Endowment for the Arts. He became Co-Chairman of the Panel in 1987, and is presently serving as Chairman of the Panel. Last fall, Morgan was selected as Texas "Teacher of the Year" by his alma mater, NTSU.
