Dr. Robert Winslow
1985 Honor Band Clinician

Dr. Robert A. Winslow, Director of Bands and Professor of Music at North Texas State University, is a nationally known educator, conductor, and performer. He became Director of Bands at NTSU School of Music in the summer of 1975. Previously he held similar positions at the Univeristy of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) and at Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts. His experiences also include several years of high school and junior college teaching in Los Angeles and Santa Monica, California. He received his doctorate from the Univeristy of Northern Colorado, a master's degree from the California State University at Northridge, and his B.A. degree from UCLA. This is Dr. Winslow's second appearance with the TJCTA Honor Band; the other was in 1978.

Bill Snodgrass
1985 Honor Jazz Ensemble Clinician

Bill Snodgrass currently serves as Associate Professor of Music and Director of Jazz Studies at the University of Texas at Arlington. Under his direction the UTA Jazz Orchestra has appeared at numerous conventions and has toured in concert in Europe, Brazil, the Phillippines, Canada, the Bahamas and the People's Republic of China. Mr. Snodgrass is President-elect of the Texas Unit of the National Association of Jazz Educators. He has served as clinician/conductor of all-state jazz ensembles in New York, Oklahoma and throughout the Southwest. He is a 1965 graduate of the Missouri Community College system and formerly taught at South Plains College in Levelland, Texas.

1985 Student Soloist-Danny Richardson-Alto Saxophone

Danny is a sophomore music major at Hill Junior College. In 1983 he was selected to be in the Lions Club International Texas All-State Band. At HJC Danny is a member of the concert band, jazz ensemble, and pep band.
