1983 HONOR BAND CLINICIAN-CONDUCTOR

Our Honor Band Clinician-Conductor is Thomas Lee, Professor of Music at the University of Texas at Austin. He joined the UT-Austin music faculty in 1973. He is conductor of the university's wind ensemble and directs the graduate program in band conducting. Lee holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Drake University and received the degree of doctor of musical arts from the College Conservatory of Music at the University of Cincinnati. Besides serving as drum major with the Drake marching band and playing tuba with the concert band, he performed with several Drake and Cincinnati choral ensembles. Prior to joining the UT-Austin faculty, Lee was conductor of the Ohio University band. He has served as guest conductor and clinician for all-state bands and music festivals throughout the United States and in Canada.

1983 HONOR JAZZ ENSEMBLE CLINICIAN-CONDUCTOR

Our 1983 Honor Jazz Ensemble Clinician-Conductor is Richard Lawn, director of Jazz studies at UT-Austin. An accomplished composer and performer, Lawn has produced several jazz programs aired nationwide through the National Public Radio Network. He has been a member of the Lionel Hampton and Chuck Mangione bands and has performed with such jazz artists as Dizzy Gillespie, Marion McPartland, and Siam Stuart. Lawn has recently published a text entitled The Jazz Ensemble Director's Manual, and he presently has 15 music publications for jazz ensemble and studio orchestra available through four publishing firms.

1983 STUDENT SOLOIST - HUASCAR BARRADAS - FLUTE

Huascar is a freshman flute major at San Jacinto (Central) College where he studies flute with Linda Peoples. Mr. Barradas comes from Venezuela and plans to attend Eastman School of Music next year.
