Joe Eckert

Joe Eckert is the first full-time Professor of Saxophone at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas. In 2011, he assumed additional duties as Director of Jazz Studies. From 1987-2007, he served as Professor of Saxophone at Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia and Director of Jazz Studies from 2004-07. He retired in 2004 from a 20-year career as lead alto saxophonist/woodwind specialist and director for the USAF Band's Airmen of Note in Washington, D.C. Mr. Eckert received his B.M. from Baldwin-Wallace College in saxophone performance and went on to complete graduate and post-graduate studies at the University of North Texas. He has also held teaching positions at Southern Methodist University (1980-81) and West Virginia University (1981-84).

He continues to remain active as a performer, playing regularly with the Fort Worth Symphony and as a jazz soloist and recitalist nationally. He has served as an adjudicator and clinician at music festivals, high schools, and colleges nationally and internationally and is a Yamaha Performing Artist/Clinician.

Special thanks to Larry Greer, Angelina College (Jazz Ensemble Organizer); Jim Laughlin, TCCBDA Student Jazz Composition Contest and all directors and applied faculty members who judged the audition recordings.

Dr. Nicholas Williams

Dr. Nicholas Enrico Williams is the assistant director of wind studies, conductor of the Wind Ensemble, Brass Band, and the director of athletic bands, including the North Texas Green Brigade Marching Band and the Basketball Pep Band at the University of North Texas. He is also the conductor for the GDYO Wind Symphony in Dallas, Texas. In addition, he is a frequent guest conductor for the Dallas Winds (formerly Dallas Wind Symphony) and the Dallas Winds Brass Choir.

Prior to his assignment at the University of North Texas, Dr. Williams, a multiple-edition honoree of Who's Who Among America's Educators, was the director of bands at Clark High School in Plano, Texas. In his last year of public school teaching, he was honored as the Clark High School Teacher of the Year, a Finalist for the Plano ISD Teacher of the Year, and was named a "Ross Perot Excellence in Teaching Award" recipient—an award given to only four secondary teachers annually in the Plano ISD. During his tenure at Clark High School, the band program received consistent sweepstakes awards for marching, concert and sight reading; under his baton, the Honors Band was awarded best in class or best in contest in every festival in which the band performed.

Dr. Williams was active in Drum Corps International for almost two decades, where he served as brass instructor, brass caption head, staff coordinator, or senior brass consultant for the two-time world champion Madison Scouts (Madison, Wisconsin), the six-time world champion Santa Clara Vanguard (Santa Clara, CA), Boston Crusaders (Boston, MA) and Southwind (Lexington, KY).

Special thanks to Ken Booker, Lee College (Symphonic Band Organizer); Steve Hart, Hill College (Music Organizer); Roy Allen, Brookhaven College (Seating Audition Organizer); Norm Bergeron, Temple College (Percussion Organizer); Glenn Wells, Kilgore College (Concerto Competition Organizer); and all directors and applied faculty members who judged audition recordings and chair auditions. Percussion Equipment provided by Ludwig/Musser, a division of Conn-Selmer, and Sabian Cymbals of Canada. Thanks to TMEA, Al Murray, Jim Catalano, and Roland Muzquiz.
