

Conversation Dirigée

Introduction: Marie Claire is going to travel to Paris, and she is leaving at 10h30 to take a taxi to the airport. She arrives at 11h20 and gets out of the taxi. She looks for the airlines Air France and finds that it is very near. But, what a surprise! She sees her friend, Marie Louise.

MC: Says "hello" to ML and asks where she is going?

ML: Responds that she is traveling to Paris and her flight is Air France #2058

MC: Says, "What a coincidence! I'm taking the same flight!" She asks what class ML chose.

ML: Responds "Economy class". She says that she needs to get her boarding pass at the counter.

MC: Responds that she does too. She is going to check one bag.

(at the counter)

Agent: Says "hello" and asks to see ML's passport?

ML: Says "hello" and "Here it is".

Agent: Asks if ML wants an aisle seat or a window seat.

ML: Says she would like a window seat.

Agent: Says "hello" to MC and asks to see her passport. Asks MC if she would like an aisle seat or a window seat.

MC: Says she would like an aisle seat.

Agent: Asks how many suitcases she is checking?

MC: Says she is checking one.

Agent: Says: "Here are your boarding passes."

ML: Thanks the agent.

MC: Says that their gate is H15.

(The two women move towards the security checkpoint with their passports, and their carry on bags.)