

GRANDPARENT

Interview

In conjunction with our “Time Travel” book fair theme, we invite our students to travel back in time with their grandparent(s) and grand-people by interviewing them this week – whether in person, via phone, facetime, zoom – you’re choice! You can record the Zoom call and save it as a special keepsake, or encourage students to create a short report of what they learned and present it to your family at dinner.

Students can also “shop the fair” with their grandparent, by accessing the fair link together. If grandparents wish to shop alone, we have provided grade level recommendation lists. We also encourage all of our grandparents to join our PTA and share other virtual events with us this year.
