

Conference Scheduling Information

Parents and legal guardians are encouraged to schedule conferences with individual teachers or teacher teams by contacting the homeroom teacher or the front office. Meetings are scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis, so please allow a few days for appointments to be arranged.

Only parents and legal guardians may formally request a conference. To ensure the privacy and confidentiality of students, RTSA faculty and staff cannot share specific student information with anyone other than the parents or legal guardians.