The Word of God - Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

La Palabra de Dios - Evangelio

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

En aquel tiempo, cuando Jesús iba de camino a Jerusalén, pasó entre Samaria y Galilea. Estaba cerca de un pueblo, cuando le salieron al encuentro diez leprosos, los cuales se detuvieron a lo lejos y a gritos le decían: "Jesús, maestro, ten compasión de nosotros". Al verlos, Jesús les dijo: "Vayan a presentarse a los sacerdotes". Mientras iban de camino, quedaron limpios de la lepra. Uno de ellos, al ver que estaba curado, regresó, alabando a Dios en voz alta, se postró a los pies de Jesús y le dio las gracias. Ese era un samaritano. Entonces dijo Jesús: "¿No eran diez los que quedaron limpios? ¿Dónde están los otros nueve? ¿No ha habido nadie, fuera de este extranjero, que volviera para dar gloria a Dios?" Después le dijo al samaritano: "Levántate y vete. Tu fe te ha salvado".

Collection for World Mission Day :

"A Call to Hope" The Weekend of October 19 and 20. The Church invites us to rediscover our missionary vocation. This year, Pope Leo XIV, calls us to become "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples," inspired by St. Paul's words: "Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit" (Rom 5:5)

Colecta para la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones:

"Una llamada a la esperanza" Fin de Semana del 19 y 20 de Octubre. La Iglesia nos invita a redescubrir nuestra vocación misionera. Este año, el Papa León XIV, nos llama a convertirnos en "Misioneros de la Esperanza entre los Pueblos", inspirados en las palabras de San Pablo: "La esperanza no defrauda, porque el amor de Dios ha sido derramado en nuestros corazones por el Espíritu Santo" (Rom 5:5)

COLUMBUS DAY

Some see Columbus Day as a celebration of the evangelization of the Americas! Missionaries who accompanied the conquerors and settlers certainly proclaimed the gospel. In parts of what is now Canada and throughout the southern lands taken by the Spanish and Portuguese, Jesuits and Franciscans set out to convert the people. The growth of the church is, for some, the real cause of thanksgiving.

For others however, many in the church and many outside, the commemoration has not been a celebration. It has been seen rather as a time to ask forgiveness of the descendants of the native peoples, and a time to take a long hard look and examine the arrogance and even brutality with which they were treated in their own land. They were not the savages the old movies depicted! They were people of music, poetry, religion, medicine, law, crafts, and agriculture.

What lesson can we take as we commemorate Columbus more than 500 years later? Or more important, what can we work at today - in the America of today - that would be remembered with joy 500 years from now? Surely that we have learned, however painfully, to live side by side and in harmony with peoples of other races and religions, colors and cultures, heritages and languages!

We know that people can grow up hating, or learn to hate. We know too that terrible and stupid things have been done in the past to people because they are African American or Jewish or Native American or Catholic. The list is long!

Thank God we realize more and more that this is wrong and must be changed. America is the great melting pot of people trying to live in love and peace and respect! What a scene! What an inspiration! What a challenge!

It is ours today as we salute the past and look to the future with hope.

El Día de Colón

¡Algunos ven el Día de Colón como una celebración de la evangelización de las Américas! Los misioneros que acompañaron a los conquistadores y colonos ciertamente proclamaron el evangelio. En partes de lo que hoy es Canadá y en todas las tierras del sur tomadas por los españoles y portugueses, jesuitas y franciscanos se propusieron convertir a la gente. El crecimiento de la iglesia es, para algunos, el verdadero motivo de acción de gracias.

Para otros, sin embargo, muchos dentro y fuera de la iglesia, la conmemoración no ha sido una celebración. Más bien se ha visto como un momento para pedir perdón a los descendientes de los pueblos nativos, y un momento para echar un largo y cuidadoso vistazo para examinar la arrogancia e incluso la brutalidad con la que fueron tratados en su propia tierra. ¡No eran los salvajes que retrataban las viejas películas! Eran pueblos de música, poesía, religión, medicina, derecho, artesanía y agricultura.

¿Qué lección podemos extraer al conmemorar a Colón más de 500 años después? O más importante, ¿en qué podemos trabajar hoy —en la América de hoy— que sería recordado con alegría dentro de 500 años? ¡Seguramente que hemos aprendido, aunque dolorosamente, a vivir lado a lado y en armonía con personas de otras razas y religiones, colores y culturas, herencias e idiomas!

Sabemos que la gente puede crecer odiando, o aprender a odiar. También sabemos que se han hecho cosas terribles y estúpidas en el pasado a personas por ser afroamericanas o judías o nativas americanas o católicas. ¡La lista es larga!

Gracias a Dios, nos damos cuenta cada vez más de que esto está mal y debe ser cambiado. ¡América es el gran crisol de gente que intenta vivir en el amor, la paz y el respeto! ¡Qué escena! ¡Qué inspiración! ¡Qué desafío!

Es nuestro hoy mientras saludamos el pasado y miramos al futuro con esperanza.

October is Respect Life Month!

As we begin Respect Life Month, together we embrace the words of Pope Leo XIV, "How important it is that each and every baptized person feel himself or herself called by God to be a sign of hope in the world today." Each of us is called to be a witness to the Gospel of Life, proclaiming in word and deed the innate goodness and dignity of every human person.

Join Catholics nationwide in celebrating Respect Life Month. Visit respectlife.org/celebrate.

¡¡Octubre es el Mes Respetemos la Vida!

Al comenzar el Mes Respetemos la Vida, juntos abrazamos las palabras del papa León XIV: "Qué importante es que cada persona bautizada se sienta llamada por Dios a ser signo de esperanza en el mundo de hoy".² Cada uno de nosotros está llamado a ser testigo del Evangelio de la Vida, proclamando con palabras y obras la bondad y la dignidad innatas de toda persona humana.

We all have times when we regret things we've said or done. But sometimes we can get "stuck" in a relentless stream of self-criticism, endlessly mulling over what would or wouldn't have happened if we had only done things differently.

This morning session is meant to help us understand what is happening and give some suggestions as to how to break free from this cycle.

Presenter: Christine Rubinstein, retired Christian psychotherapist and parishioner at St Patrick's. She regularly posts short reflections about the spiritual journey on her blog site: www.lessonsfromloveschool.com.
