The Word of God - Gospel Jn. 6:37-40

La Palabra de Dios - Evangelio

Jesus said to the crowds: "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day."

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a la multitud: "Todo aquel que me da el Padre viene hacia mí; y al que viene a mí yo no lo echaré fuera, porque he bajado del cielo, no para hacer mi voluntad, sino la voluntad del que me envió. Y la voluntad del que me envió es que yo no pierda nada de lo que él me ha dado, sino que lo resucite en el último día. La voluntad de mi Padre consiste en que todo el que vea al Hijo y crea en él, tenga vida eterna y yo lo resucite en el último día".

St. Patrick Church MONTHLY Healing MASS November 13 at 7PM!

Come and Encounter Jesus Our Healer! Monthly Healing Mass with Anointing, Adoration, and Personal Prayer.

SOMETIMES WE THINK WE KNOW

Steve Covey sat quietly in the subway train. People were reading newspapers, some were dozing, others contemplating with their eyes closed. It was a peaceful, calm scene.

At the next stop a man and his children entered the car. The children were soon yelling back and forth, throwing things, even grabbing people's newspapers. It all became very annoying, yet the father sat there in a seeming daze. Irritation grew among the passengers.

Finally, with what he thought was admirable restraint, Steve said to the man: "Sir, your children are really disturbing a lot of people. Would you please control them a bit more?" The man lifted his head, almost as if becoming conscious for the first time. He said: "Oh, you're right. I'm sorry. We're just come from the hospital where their mother died two hours ago. I don't know what to think, and I guess they don't know how to handle it either."

Steve stared in shock! "Suddenly", he said, "I saw things differently. Because I saw things differently, I felt differently. I behaved differently. My irritation vanished. I didn't have to worry about controlling my attitude now. My heart was filled with the man's pain. Feelings of compassion and sympathy flowed freely. "Your wife just died? Oh, I'm so sorry! Can you tell me about it? What can I do to help?"

Nothing changed in that subway car! All was the same: the same people, the same journey, the same rhythm of the train's motion. What did change was a way of seeing it all, and with the seeing, a change in behavior.

Sometimes we think we know when we don't!

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Four things come not back, - the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life, the neglected opportunity!

A VECES CREEMOS SABER

Stephen Covey viajaba tranquilamente en el metro. Los pasajeros leían, algunos dormitaban, otros simplemente descansaban con los ojos cerrados. Todo era calma y silencio.

De pronto, en la siguiente estación, subió un hombre con sus hijos. En pocos minutos, los niños comenzaron a gritar, a correr por el vagón, a lanzar objetos y hasta a arrebatar los periódicos de las manos de los demás pasajeros. El ambiente se volvió tenso y molesto.

Mientras tanto, el padre permanecía inmóvil, como ausente, sin reaccionar ante el alboroto. La incomodidad de los pasajeros crecía, y Covey, tratando de mantener la calma, finalmente le dijo con firmeza y cortesía:

Señor, sus hijos están molestando mucho. ¿Podría hacer algo para controlarlos?

El hombre levantó la vista lentamente, con una expresión perdida, y respondió:

Tiene razón... Lo siento mucho. Acabamos de salir del hospital. Su madre murió hace dos horas. No sé qué pensar, y ellos tampoco saben cómo reaccionar.

Covey quedó sin palabras. Más tarde escribió:

"En un instante, lo vi todo de otra manera. Nada en el vagón había cambiado: la gente, el ruido, el viaje... todo seguía igual. Pero mi percepción cambió. Al cambiar mi forma de ver, cambiaron mis sentimientos y mis acciones. La irritación desapareció, y fue reemplazada por compasión y empatía. Ya no me importaba el ruido. Solo sentía el dolor de aquel hombre y deseaba ayudarlo." Nada cambió afuera... pero todo cambió dentro. A veces creemos saber, cuando en realidad no sabemos.

PARA REFLEXIONAR

Cuatro cosas no regresan - la palabra dicha, la flecha lanzada, la vida pasada, y la oportunidad perdida.
