WISDOM from Fr. Nick

Respect Life Sunday

Since the nineteen seventies, the thrust of Respect Life Sunday has changed from saluting life as a gift from God to defending every person's right to that gift. The Roe v's Wade decision of 1973 did indeed have that much influence in a world that grows more secular and materialistic with the passing years.

Of all the life that comes from God, the human life is God's greatest gift to the world. The very first Book in the Bible, Genesis, says it clearly: "Be fertile. Multiply! Fill the earth and subdue it. God created people in His image. Male and female, he created them." (Gen 1:28)

Parents are given this great privilege of cooperating with God in this creative act. There'll never be a child born without God's Will being present. Childless couples attest beautifully and very often agonizingly to that! We're sacred then, you and I! In the prime of life, the end of life, the beginning of life, we're all unique and precious in God's eyes.

Our wonderful constitution that is looked up to and admired in so many other countries speaks with clarity and eloquence of the right to 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness'. But life has to come first! It must be present for the others to exist!

Liberty is great, and Lady L has greeted every immigrant to these shores, including me! But when liberty is put before life, it becomes absurd. That's a style of life taking precedence over life itself.

So have a wonderful holiday with your families this long weekend. Be conscious once again of your own uniqueness in your relationship with God, while thanking Him for all the wonderful people whose paths you are privileged to cross while here.

SABIDURIA del Padre Nick

Domingo de Respeto a la Vida

Desde la década de los setenta, el sentido del Domingo de Respeto a la Vida ha evolucionado: pasó de ser una celebración de la vida como un don de Dios a convertirse en una defensa activa del derecho de cada persona a recibir ese don. La decisión del caso Roe vs. Wade en 1973 marcó profundamente esta dinámica en un mundo que se vuelve más secular y materialista con el paso de los años.

De toda la vida que proviene de Dios, la vida humana es su regalo más grande para el mundo. El primer libro de la Biblia, el Génesis, lo dice claramente: «Sean fecundos y multiplíquense. Llenen la tierra y sométanla. Dios creó a las personas a su imagen; varón y hembra los creó» (Gén 1, 28).

A los padres se les concede el inmenso privilegio de colaborar con Dios en este acto creador. Nunca nacerá un niño sin que la Voluntad de Dios esté presente algo que las parejas sin hijos testimonian de manera hermosa y, muy a menudo, dolorosa. ¡Tú y yo somos sagrados! Ya sea en la juventud, en el ocaso de la existencia o en sus primeros instantes, todos somos únicos y valiosos ante los ojos de Dios.

Nuestra maravillosa Constitución, admirada y respetada en tantos otros países, habla con claridad y elocuencia del derecho a «la vida, la libertad y la búsqueda de la felicidad». ¡Pero la vida tiene que ser lo primero! ¡Debe estar presente para que las demás puedan existir!

La libertad es magnífica la Estatua de la Libertad ha saludado a cada inmigrante que ha llegado a estas playas, incluyéndome a mí. Sin embargo, cuando la libertad pretende anteponerse a la vida, se vuelve absurda: es permitir que un estilo de vida tenga prioridad sobre la vida misma.

Tengan un maravilloso fin de semana festivo con sus familias. Vuelvan a tomar conciencia de lo únicos que son en su relación con Dios, mientras le dan gracias por todas las personas maravillosas con las que tienen el privilegio de cruzarse en el camino mientras están aquí.

Gospel Reading

Mt. 21:33-43

Lectura del Evangelio

«Escuchen otra parábola: Había un propietario que plantó una viña, la rodeó con una cerca, cavó en ella un lagar, construyó una torre de guardia, la arrendó a unos viñadores y se fue de viaje. Cuando llegó el tiempo de la cosecha, envió a sus siervos a los viñadores para que recogieran sus frutos. Pero los viñadores agarraron a los siervos, a uno lo golpearon, a otro lo mataron y a otro lo apedrearon. De nuevo envió a otros siervos, más numerosos que los primeros, e hizo con ellos lo mismo. Finalmente, le envió a su hijo, diciendo: "Respetarán a mi hijo". Pero los viñadores, al ver al hijo, se dijeron entre sí: "Este es el heredero; vengan, matémoslo y quedémonos con su herencia". Y agarrándolo, lo echaron fuera de la viña y lo mataron. Cuando venga el dueño de la viña, ¿qué hará con aquellos viñadores?». Le respondieron: «Hará perecer miserablemente a esos malvados y arrendará la viña a otros viñadores que le entreguen los frutos a su debido tiempo». Jesús les dijo: «¿Nunca han leído en las Escrituras: La piedra que desecharon los arquitectos se ha convertido en la piedra angular; esto es obra del Señor, y es admirable a nuestros ojos? Por eso les digo que el Reino de Dios les será quitado a ustedes y dado a un pueblo que produzca sus frutos».

"Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, built a tower, leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey. When the harvest time approached, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants: they beat one, killed another, and stoned a third. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first, and they treated them the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and claim his inheritance.' So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. When the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper time." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

100 AÑOS DEL DOMINGO MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES

World Mission Sunday Second Collection | October 17-18

Answer the call to be "One in Christ, united in mission"! On World Mission Sunday, we renew our baptismal commitment to share the Gospel worldwide. Your support for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith directly empowers priests, religious sisters, and lay leaders serving in impoverished mission communities. Please support them through your prayers and generous contributions this weekend. Thank you for making a difference!

Segunda Colecta para el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones | 17 y 18 de octubre

¡Responda al llamado a estar "Uno en Cristo, unidos en la misión"! En este Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, renovamos nuestro compromiso bautismal de compartir el Evangelio en todo el mundo. Su apoyo a la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe fortalece directamente a sacerdotes, religiosas y líderes laicos que sirven en comunidades de misión necesitadas. Por favor, apóyelos con sus oraciones y sus generosas contribuciones este fin de semana. ¡Gracias por hacer la diferencia!

Why Make a Holy Hour?

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen once spoke about his daily Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament. He was asked how he could possibly keep such a commitment with all the demands placed upon him. His answer was simple: he did not make a Holy Hour because he had time; he made it because Jesus was worth the time.

That has stayed with me.

We all have things that demand our attention. Work, family, responsibilities, problems, people who need us. But there is a danger in spending our entire lives giving ourselves to everything and everyone —while giving Jesus whatever time happens to be left over.

Adoration turns that around.

For one hour, we stop. We put down the phone. We quiet the noise. We come before Jesus and simply say: “Lord, I am here. You are here. That is enough.”

I believe our parish will be changed as more of us begin to spend time with Jesus in this way. Not because we are doing something extraordinary, but because we are allowing Him to do something extraordinary in us.

I invite you personally: sign up for one hour of Eucharistic Adoration in our chapel. Give Jesus an hour that belongs entirely to Him.

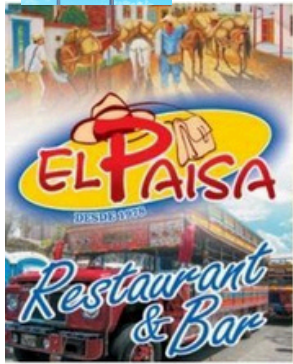

You may think you are giving Him your time.

Perhaps you will discover that He is giving you something far greater in return.

Fr. Brice
