Quo Vadis Days is a camp for incoming 9th – 12th grade boys (including recent graduates).

It seeks to empower young men through friendship, faith, and vocational discernment.

The theme of this year's camp is inspired by the life and witness of Blessed Carlo Acutis, a Catholic Italian teenager who died in 2006, was beatified Oct. 10, 2020 in Assisi. He has become a patron for the youth.

The Camp includes:

- + Daily Mass
- + Team building
- + Sports and games
- + Eucharistic Adoration
- + Talks from men of faith

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured. As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said, "Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here." He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves." They replied, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have, unless we ourselves go and buy food for all these people." Now the men there numbered about five thousand. Then he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty." They did so and made them all sit down. Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

En aquel tiempo, Jesús habló del Reino de Dios a la multitud y curó a los enfermos. Cuando caía la tarde, los doce apóstoles se acercaron a decirle: "Despide a la gente para que vayan a los pueblos y caseríos a buscar alojamiento y comida, porque aquí estamos en un lugar solitario". Él les contestó: "Denles ustedes de comer". Pero ellos le replicaron: "No tenemos más que cinco panes y dos pescados; a no ser que vayamos nosotros mismos a comprar víveres para toda esta gente". Eran como cinco mil varones. Entonces Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "Hagan que se sienten en grupos como de cincuenta". Así lo hicieron, y todos se sentaron. Después Jesús tomó en sus manos los cinco panes y los dos pescados, y levantando su mirada al cielo, pronunció sobre ellos una oración de acción de gracias, los partió y los fue dando a los discípulos para que ellos los distribuyeran entre la gente. Comieron todos y se saciaron, y de lo que sobró se llenaron doce canastos.

NEW WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY AT ST PIUS V CHURCH

Women of the Old Testament - Their Stories and Ours

Hagar, Leah, Rahab, Tamar, Deborah, Abigail, Zelophehad's daughters? Know anything about them? They're all part of the Biblical story, and many are even ancestors of Jesus Christ. In this study, we'll examine these women and try to understand why their stories matter, and what we can learn from them that might apply to our own lives.

Please join us for any or all of this 7 part series. We'll meet weekly, Wednesday mornings beginning June 8th, from 10:00-11:30 am in the Cafe Lepanto at St. Pius V Church. Make sure to bring a Bible and be prepared to get excited about the Old Testament and what it has to teach us!

Your presenter/moderator is Christine Rubinstein, an amateur Bible scholar, retired Christian psychotherapist, and Protestant convert to the Catholic Church.

FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
CORPUS CHRISTI

The lines snaked up to receive Holy Communion. Among the ranks were the bored, the enthusiastic, the habitual communicant and - at times - the equally habitual sinner. Hands or tongues were outstretched to receive their God made visible in what tastes and looks like bread. Their 'Amen' confirmed the Eucharistic Minister's statement: "Body of Christ" (Corpus Christi). And then back to the pews, though some had already left - perhaps anticipating the closing words "Go in peace to love and serve the Lord."

A wobble of the knee or hip vaguely towards the tabernacle and then out! Out to hurried, harried lives! The jostling in the various queues of life; in supermarkets, surgeries and banks. Back to lives where time is an enemy - abundant or scarce, commitments mounting, money inadequate and love at times a stranger. Perhaps we forget that just as God put himself in our hands and mouth during Mass, he has placed himself in our care during the week too, and at the mercy of our hands and mouths. When we recognize and respond to Him present in those starved of affection or greeting, in the youth who need adult leaders and example, in the elderly, the infirm, the needy - we truly celebrate Corpus Christi.

In many parts of the world, this feast is the day for a holy and reverent procession through the streets honoring the presence of Christ in the consecrated host. Let it also be a time of wonder! If we really believed what we claim, we would genuflect first to the tabernacle and then to each other.

FIESTA DEL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE CRISTO
CORPUS CHRISTI

Las filas serpenteaban para recibir la Sagrada Comunión. Entre las filas estaban los aburridos, los entusiastas, los comulgantes habituales y, a veces, los pecadores igualmente habituales. Manos o lenguas estaban extendidas para recibir a su Dios hecho visible en lo que sabe y parece pan. Su 'Amén' confirmó la declaración del Ministro Eucarístico: "Cuerpo de Cristo" (Corpus Christi). Y luego de regreso a los bancos, aunque algunos ya se habían ido, tal vez anticipando las palabras finales: "Id en paz para amar y servir al Señor".

¡Un bamboleo de la rodilla o la cadera vagamente hacia el tabernáculo y luego hacia afuera! ¡Fuera a vidas apresuradas, acosadas! Los empujones en las diversas colas de la vida; en supermercados, consultorios y bancos. Volver a vidas donde el tiempo es un enemigo: abundante o escaso, compromisos crecientes, dinero inadecuado y amor a veces a un extraño. Quizás olvidemos que así como Dios se puso en nuestras manos y boca durante la Misa, también se ha puesto a nuestro cuidado durante la semana, y a merced de nuestras manos y boca. Cuando lo reconocemos y respondemos presente en los hambrientos de afecto o de saludo, en los jóvenes que necesitan adultos de liderazgo y ejemplo, en los ancianos, los enfermos, los necesitados, celebramos verdaderamente el Corpus Christi.

En muchas partes del mundo, esta fiesta es el día de una procesión santa y reverente por las calles en honor a la presencia de Cristo en la hostia consagrada. ¡Que también sea un tiempo de asombro! Si realmente creyéramos lo que afirmamos, haríamos una genuflexión primero ante el tabernáculo y luego entre nosotros.

Mateusz Puzanowski

From personal experience, we may find that there is an abundance of difficulties imposed by the modern world that obstruct our ability to embrace an authentically Christian way of life. In other words, the radical demands of the Gospel seem to be out of reach in an age increasingly devoid of God. Therefore, having anticipated all that would follow His departure, Our Lord Jesus Christ entrusted the priestly ministers of His Bride, the Church, with the most sublime of gifts, the Gift of His Body and Blood. Also known under the titles of the Blessed Sacrament and the Holy Eucharist, this Gift was meant to provide His followers with a tangible and enduring presence of the living God until the Second Coming. “This [is] how He counteracts time and the world. It [the Blessed Sacrament] is not past, it is not away. It is this that makes devotion in lives. It is the life of our religion[,]” as St John Henry Newman explained. That said, although we do not perceive Him in the same way as those who saw Jesus when He walked on this earth, by faith we come to know that veiled under the appearance of bread and wine, He is really, truly and substantially present. This means that the Blessed Sacrament is in fact Jesus Christ in His totality: Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. It is also important to mention that based on this principle of inseparability, each particle of the Sacred Species is the whole Christ, and, as a result, simultaneously contains His Sacred Heart in company with the presence of the Most Blessed Trinity. Thus, the Holy Eucharist is the pinnacle of the Catholic Faith and as the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “the source and summit of the Christian life.” (CCC, 1324; LG, 11) In celebrating the Solemnity of the Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or Corpus Christi, we must reevaluate our approach to this august Miracle. Emptying Himself by surrendering to the consecrated hands of His priests, Jesus Christ was rendered vulnerable so as to initiate a direct means of communion, that is, an intimate encounter with Him. On account of that, I will leave you with an exhortation towards properly disposing ourselves as we draw near to this Gift, the very Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ: “We should, therefore, approach that table and that great and good thing with the utmost reverence, fear, and trembling, but above all, with exceeding great love. And the soul should approach unto this Sacrament humbly, exalted, and adorned, for it goeth unto that which is the height of all beauty and perfect glory, supreme holiness, happiness, blessedness, exaltedness, and nobility, all sweetness and all love, and which hath the sweetness of love without end.” (St Angela of Foligno)

Adoro te devote, latens Deitas!

Por experiencia personal, podemos encontrar que hay una gran cantidad de dificultades impuestas por el mundo moderno que obstruyen nuestra capacidad de abrazar un mundo auténticamente estilo de vida cristiano. En otras palabras, las exigencias radicales del Evangelio parecen estar fuera de alcanzar en una época cada vez más desprovista de Dios. Por lo tanto, habiendo anticipado todo lo que sucedería seguir Su partida, Nuestro Señor Jesucristo encomendó a los ministros sacerdotales de Su Esposa, la Iglesia, con el más sublime de los dones, el Don de Su Cuerpo y Sangre. También conocido bajo los títulos del Santísimo Sacramento y la Sagrada Eucaristía, este Don estaba destinado a proporcionar a sus seguidores una presencia tangible y duradera del Dios viviente hasta el Segundo advenimiento. “Así [es] cómo Él contrarresta el tiempo y el mundo. Él [el Sagrado Sacramento] no es pasado, no está lejos. Esto es lo que hace la devoción en las vidas. es la vida de nuestra religión[,]”, como explicó St John Henry Newman. Dicho esto, aunque no lo percibimos de la misma manera que aquellos que vieron a Jesús cuando caminó sobre esta tierra, por la fe llegamos a saber que, velado bajo la apariencia de pan y vino, Él está real, verdadera y sustancialmente presente. Esto significa que el Santísimo Sacramento es de hecho Jesús Cristo en Su totalidad: Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad. También es importante mencionar que basado en este principio de inseparabilidad, cada partícula de las Especies Sagradas es el todo Cristo, y, como resultado, contiene simultáneamente Su Sagrado Corazón en compañía de la presencia de la Santísima Trinidad. Por lo tanto, la Sagrada Eucaristía es el pináculo de la Fe Católica y como dice el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, “fuente y cumbre de la vida cristiana.” (CIC, 1324; LG, 11) Al celebrar la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo, o Corpus Christi, debemos reevaluar nuestro enfoque de este augusto Milagro. Vaciándose a sí mismo por rindiéndose a las manos consagradas de sus sacerdotes, Jesucristo fue rendido vulnerable para iniciar un medio directo de comunión, es decir, un encuentro íntimo con él. Por eso, los dejo con una exhortación a que disponiéndonos a medida que nos acercamos a este Don, el mismo Cuerpo y Sangre de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo: “Debemos, por lo tanto, acercarnos a esa mesa y esa cosa grande y buena con la mayor reverencia, temor y temblor, pero sobre todo, con un amor muy grande. Y el alma debe acercarse a este Sacramento humildemente, exaltada y adornada, porque va a lo que es la altura de toda belleza y perfecta gloria, suprema santidad, felicidad, bienaventuranza, exaltación y nobleza, toda dulzura y todo amor, y que tiene la dulzura del amor sin fin.” (Santa Ángela de Foligno)

¡Adoro te devoto, latens Deitas!
