Located in the heart of downtown Columbia, just steps from South Carolina's historic State House & the Vista, 1208 Washington Place has been a landmark and cornerstone of the city's architectural charm for over a century. 1208 Washington Place offers unmatched convenience surrounded by top-rated hotels, vibrant restaurants, cafés, and a thriving nightlife—everything your guests need, all within walking distance.

National Republic Ballroom

This elegant ballroom offers a stunning setting for larger events, showcasing vintage revolving doors, original recessed textured ceilings, and dramatic chandeliers that set the tone for an unforgettable experience.

Washington Street Ballroom

The Washington Street Ballroom offers terrace access and rustic-style windows that fill the space with natural light. For added versatility, an air wall allows the room to be divided into two distinct areas

The Library

With vintage floors, stone walls, and a grand fireplace, The Library offers a refined setting for intimate gatherings

Twin Vaults

The preserved vault doors, relocated in 1950, now stand as a distinctive architectural highlight, adding elegance and character to every event.

The Terrace & Mezzanine

Spanning three levels of distinctive indoor and outdoor spaces, the venue boasts one of downtown Columbia's rare rooftop terraces, offering unparalleled privacy and sweeping city views
