The Exchange Club of Steele County presented The Exchange Club Center for Family Unity in Owatonna a check for $5,000 during their regular meeting Friday morning, Sept. 19. The check presentation was made by Club President Dom Korbel (pictured left) to the Center's Executive Director Beth Hortop. A major portion of the donation came from funds raised by Club members and friends working the parking gates at this year's Steele County Free Fair.

The Exchange Club of Owatonna recognized the local fire department's Senior Administrative Technician Bonnie Hermel (pictured left) as their 2025 Owatonna Firefighter of the Year during a banquet Thursday, Oct. 9, at the Eagles Club. Presenting the award was Club Secretary Sharon Klein. Bonnie was recognized for her outstanding support work even though she doesn't respond to emergency calls. Her selection was made by the fire chief with input from fire department staff and previous recipients.

The National Day of Service is a powerful tradition where Exchange Clubs across the country unite to serve their communities. It's a coordinated day of volunteerism and impact—an opportunity to show what Exchange is all about.

Whether it's organizing a cleanup, hosting a donation drive, or supporting a local cause, vinetner it's organizing a cleanup, nosting a donation drive, or supporting a local cause your club's participation helps amplify our collective mission.

Lakes & Prairies Exchangite - September/October 2025

The Exchange Club of Owatonna recognized 11 local veterans during their Quilts of Valor program, Sept. 11, at Torey's Restaurant. Quilt of Valor prides itself on having every quilt awarded to a veteran be volunteer-made, and then awarded to nominated service members and veterans.
