

Sermon Titles & summary—March 2026

In March, we journey through Lent, reflecting on our walk with God as we accompany Jesus to Jerusalem, where He triumphantly enters the city to fulfill the promises of the law and the prophets.

Sunday, March 1st

Luke 9:51-54— "Set Your Face to Jerusalem"

In this passage, Jesus demonstrates His determination to go to Jerusalem, despite the challenges ahead, to fulfilling His mission. It emphasizes His focus on suffering and sacrifice, leading to His crucifixion, which is central to our faith, trust, and commitment to follow Him and continue His mission on Earth.

Sunday, March 8th

Matthew 9:57-62— "Will You Follow?"

As Jesus continues to set His face toward Jerusalem, Matthew 9:57-62 challenges those who desire to follow Jesus but often make excuses that reveal where their priorities and commitments lie. Following Jesus demands radical life changes and sacrifices; letting go of security, relationships, and personal plans.

Sunday, March 15th

John 4:1-41— "The Gift of the Living Water"

This passage invites us to consider our own spiritual thirst and the lengths we go to seek fulfillment. It challenges us to break down barriers in our interactions and to share the love of Christ with those around us. True relationship with Christ brings endless satisfaction and peace sourcing from the loving Well of God.

Sunday, March 22nd

John 9:1-12— "While on the Move"

John 9:1-12 prompts us to reflect on our own blindness, whether it be spiritual, emotional, or relational, and encourages us to seek healing Christ brings. In recognizing our limitations, we can find hope and be empowered to share our own stories of redemption. It reminds us that, even while on the move, Jesus sees us and provides the healing and grace we need for our faith journey toward our Jerusalem.

Sunday, March 29th

Mark 11:1-11— "While in Jerusalem: The Sound of the Crowd"

The triumphal entry! Today we focus on the sound of the crowd, who finally received Jesus in his final leg. Soon, their voices will transition from welcoming to denial, and eventually to the fulfillment of scripture. This text calls us to see our place in the story.