

PASTOR LISA R. REEVES

*Many are called; yet only a few are chosen.
Acknowledging the fact that she was chosen by God for such a time as this, Lisa R. Reeves surrendered to God and gave Him her complete yes.*

Affectionately known as “Pastor Lisa,” her journey to salvation and the ministry is uniquely her own. The daughter of the late Reverend Calop Brown and Mother Ruth Brown, Lisa was the stereotypical “PK”—living her life, her way. Having an “Apostle Paul” experience, God allowed Lisa to go blind in the midst of her riotous living, miles away from home. Unbeknownst to her at that time, this was the culmination of a sin-led life, and the beginning of a new life in Christ.

Through this startling divine intervention and spiritual awakening, Lisa cried out in repentance, and yielded her life to Christ. By heavenly default and kingdom purpose, Lisa received the mantle from her mother, who served as leader and overseer for thirty years. A true laborer with a humble heart for the harvest, Lisa answered her call into the gospel ministry in 2007 and in due season, the call to pastor in August 2009.

Lisa has served diligently as pastor of Hope Outreach Ministries, a multi-faceted ministry that demonstrates love in action. Reaching out to those in desperate physical and spiritual need, Lisa feeds the homeless in downtown Detroit and surrounding areas. Her heart cries for women who are imprisoned and victims of domestic abuse. God has blessed Lisa to walk through many doors to minister and operate in the prophetic. Along with traveling, ministering, and speaking at women’s conferences, church services and events, Lisa stepped out the boat and expanded her reach by way of radio as a former broadcaster at Gospel 1440 WMKM. Being a shepherd and leader of excellence, many have sought refuge in Lisa as a wise counselor, spiritual mother and friend.

A devoted wife of over twenty years to her loving husband, Rob, and a mother to her two precious sons, Lisa cherishes her family and balances her time between ministry, personal and social life. Although Lisa enjoys ministry work, she also enjoys shopping, fine dining and spending quality time with her husband, sons, friends and family.
