11/11/20 A Fresh Start - 1, 19, 10, 8, 7

Life is a process of cycles within cycles, but there is nothing repetitive about it. Each cycle is new and builds on what came before. Today, with the 1 in charge, you have an opportunity to set a new goal or move a goal you had given up on back to center stage.

A 1 day can inspire new ideas and goals, but it requires courage and ambition to see them through. Fortunately, these are the defining attributes of the 1. Use the next nine days to understand and expand today's vision, and nurture it throughout the following month. Today, the day's cycle is ruled by the 1, but the entire month after next will be driven by this promising influence, delivering a 30-day cycle with high potential.

Although today's numbers increase your motivation, you could still feel a bit aimless. If so, try to focus on something small but achievable that moves you closer to your goal. Even small efforts build on themselves. -Decoz

Hello Michele, today's numbers are 2, 20, 8, 6

When we change direction or priorities, we often encounter opposition. Today there is the possibility for friction to develop with someone you know, either based on their genuine concern for you or something less virtuous. If so, do your best to diffuse the tension. With the sensitive, intuitive 11 in charge, you should be well equipped for the job.

Every number has a negative side as well. In its desire to please everyone, the 2 is sometimes tempted to indulge in gossip or tell white lies. Focus on the harmonious, cooperative traits of this number and use today's influence to bring you closer to people you care about.

It is a favorable day for career, situations that require negotiation, and settling disagreements. Even romance is favored. -Decoz

Hello Michele, today's numbers are 3, 12, 8, 5

As mentioned in your daily forecast two days ago, you are likely in the beginning stages of a change in direction. Today the numbers support your seeking out the right people to discuss your goals with.

If you find the audience you are looking for, be frank and open about your goals and your needs. The 3 is charismatic and verbally gifted. It enhances your creativity and originality, and brightens your outlook - all attributes that should help. Be mindful to stay focused, however, as it can also make you a little superficial and scattered.

Today's focus is less favorable for handling important business and financial matters. Tomorrow should be a better day, when the stable, dependable 4 returns.

Save the evening for the fun, social 3. Romance is also favored. -Decoz
